So as some of you know, as money is pouring back into Crypto... This means hoards of scams are coming also, in particular "Bitconnect 2.0".

Be vigilant and be aware.

Yeah it's just a matter of time, always check up on team members if they are legit and what they've done for the crypto industry before.

I feel bad for all those clueless people who will wall for scams like this. People are very naive when making such decisions and they end up losing their money.
