Thread: Do people still play those "Hacker" browser-games?

Dennis - May 21, 2019, 6:05 am

Can't really recall their names but I remember palying them a lot with a couple friends.
Just wondering if people still play them and if they are populated enough to start playing again?

Other than HF's hacker game, no.

But I did play DDosTheGame when it was around. It was a nice way to kill time.

That brought back a deep memory I didn't know I had

I never played such a browser game. The only hacking game I played(and still playing) is the HF's hack game :p

Not a fan of games generally tho
