In his advertisement post he is clearly propagated so many positive quotes and after purchasing his ebook all is lie and bull shit and there is no method at all which he claim to earn $200-$400 daily so in that way he scamming people like us by selling which things which anyone can get better information just by tying affiliate that might much better helpful then his eBook so why someone pay for that things and he said in first place there is no investment at all which completely wrong.

Pyro - May 22, 2019, 5:40 am

So u paid $50 for something that was supposed to make u earn $200-$400 daily ?

Doesnt that sound fishy like at all ? Why would anyone sell it for 50 fucking bucks

I feel sorry for your loss, but then again, I'm not actually, whoever buys e-books on how to make money seems to have negative balance of gray brain cells

OP has been mislead and scammed by a Trusted and known member of this community. Professor shouldn't have taken advantage of OP's little knowledge, he should have guided him instead.

OP is clearly new and mr professor is scum for doing this.

An refund shouldn't be enough here since Mr Professor continues doing this to other anyways.

Sheep - May 22, 2019, 5:50 am

All ebooks are scams. Nobody sells high profit methods for $20-$50

Did he violate his contract in some way?

Are you claiming he's using fake vouches? Because that would be a seperate issue and cant really be proved.

He is clearly claiming that he has been scammed and is not getting the promised results at all, Mr Professor clearly social engineered him into thinking that he will be making a lot of cash.

Mr.Magnificent - May 22, 2019, 5:53 am

Well, this is not the first time this happened with the same e-book.

I guess Mr. Professor didn't change his ways after the last open report.

Clearly the thread was misleading.

Goodluck with getting your money back bud.

Or Mr Professor shouldn't be social engineering new members and mislead people into buying his crappy book which has been false advertised.

It's scamming you know, it's like selling an Harry Potter book and advertising it as a horror book.

isu - May 22, 2019, 8:10 am

Sorry for your loss. I hope Mr Professor will refund you.

1. You made a chargeback within few minutes of buying the ebook.

2. You threatened me on Skype that you will contact paypal and tell them I'm scammer/sell hacking related stuff (which doesn't make any sense)

Screenshot: <https://i.imgur.com/WzmLTqU.png>

3. You also claimed that you did this with another HF seller.

4. I clearly write in my HF's TOS that you should NOT chargeback. If you do so, I have the right to cut communication with you.

Now you have the audacity to make this thread?

Pathetic.

P.S: To everyone who is saying that I'm a scammer, you never bought anything from me. Stop jumping to conclusions.
