Thread: Lobster VS Steak

Pikachu - May 23, 2019, 11:46 am

I wanna see how many people here prefer lobster over steak or vice versa. I personally prefer lobster over steak, but that's just my personal preference. What do you guys prefer? Lobster or Steak?

Weirdly enough I never had lobster but I'm pretty sure if I tried it I'd still prefer steak over it.

oRequiem - May 23, 2019, 12:00 pm

I never had lobster and don't plan on trying it really.
Steak for sure.

stantheman25 - May 23, 2019, 12:05 pm

I would choose steak any day over lobster.

int - May 23, 2019, 12:06 pm

I havent tried either but probably steak

Brendan - May 23, 2019, 12:28 pm

Lobster is good, but I'd much rather have steak.

Zexi - May 23, 2019, 12:37 pm

Rather have a BigMac. I've always been too poor to consider steak and lobster rich man's food, McDonald's is my rich man's food.

But if I had to choose it'd probably be steak, since I never tried lobster. (They don't serve that at McDonald's)

Stoner - May 23, 2019, 12:40 pm

Guys am I the only one who's kind of creeped out by lobster? Like those things scare the fuck out of me their just water scorpions lol.

Tesla - May 23, 2019, 12:40 pm

Lobsters are just the cockroaches of the ocean

Pikachu - May 23, 2019, 12:40 pm

So many steak lovers, seems like steak is what most people prefer over lobster. ?

Doctor. - May 23, 2019, 12:43 pm

Why not both? Lobster Tail and Steak

Stoner - May 23, 2019, 1:15 pm

BTC - May 23, 2019, 1:23 pm

Nice good ole filet mignon goes over lobster any day in my books ?

Nthieler - May 24, 2019, 1:53 am

I prefer steak. But sometimes I can eat lobster, but this is rare.

Pancake Boat - May 24, 2019, 1:56 am

Steak. I don't really like seafood.

I, personally, sometimes do crave a smoked fish with cheese and whatnot. But that's maybe twice a year ?

IncLom - May 24, 2019, 2:25 am steak medium rare ?

SIM-1349466 - May 24, 2019, 2:52 am

Only tried lobster once, it was ok. I like steak way better, especially with garlic and bacon.

A + - May 24, 2019, 6:10 am

I'm a light eater. I'd rather have steak if I'm working out hard, and I aint having Lobster without butter. Idk, flip a coin.

Or maybe both... same time. Surfin and turfin baby lol

Oh shit, you called that one.

Cannabis - May 24, 2019, 8:45 pm

Steak over lobster for sure. I am from a big seafood state but personally I hate it. I eat some of it but lobster is not one of those things.

A + - May 25, 2019, 2:12 am

Have you guys ever had Lobster mac and cheese? That sounds good.

IniGo - May 25, 2019, 4:54 am

Surf'nTurf guys. Butter blanched lobster tail as a side to a good steak. Served with garniture of choice and garlic/herb butter.

Eat both and be happy

Boggle911 - May 25, 2019, 5:12 am

Steak everyday of the week

3xploit - May 25, 2019, 6:04 am

Im not a big fan of lobster. I definitely prefer steak ^^

iNviZ - May 25, 2019, 8:44 am

Steak any day. I love steak really if it's good beef.

Moon - May 25, 2019, 9:10 am

Without hesitation I pick Steak..

paradisiac - May 25, 2019, 9:31 am

I love a good steak, that would be my preference in most situations. Depends a lot on my mood, as well as the temperature outside and environment.

To everyone saying they prefer steak over a lobster surely hasn't tasted Lobster Thermidor or a Tandoori Lobster.

A prized ingredient among seafood, lobsters not only look spectacular when laid out on the plate, but taste incredibly delicious even when simply sautéed in butter along with slices of fresh garlic. It is the delicate flavour that makes it score high, along with its ability to blend effortlessly with a range of other ingredients, be it creamy sauces or heavy masalas.

Lobster Thermidor - A classic French dish where the lobster shell is stuffed with a creamy mixture of meat, egg yolks and brandy. Top up with cheese and bake for an oven-browned cheese crust.

Tandoori Lobster - There could hardly be a better way to treat Newfoundland's off-shore bounty its succulent and flavoured with India's famous spice.

PS : Zinc, in particular, has been linked with a healthy male libido. Lobster is also chock full of the mineral phosphorus, which boosts both your sex drives. Plus, its concentration of essential fatty acids may increase sensitivity in your sex organs.

Gotta go with the steak on this one.

Most people won't have tried lobster.

Yes indeed. It tastes super too.

funtela - May 26, 2019, 12:13 pm

I prefer seafood. So lobster for me!

red - May 26, 2019, 12:36 pm

Lobster is so much better. Soaked in melted butter too.. goddamn.
