Thread: Anyone else have a car with no air condition?

packofmidgets - May 25, 2019, 7:49 am

I know its getting hotter in some parts of the world and if you are like some who do not have the air conditioning in your car here is a simple solution for you.

FaggNigg - May 25, 2019, 8:14 am

80% of the 90's cars don't have working air conditioners anymore these days

Cocaine - May 25, 2019, 8:20 am

Lucky my A/c works in my car lmao. I would die without it

Nachfolger - May 25, 2019, 2:52 pm

I'm a alpha male so I roll my windows down anyway.

ShinyThings - May 25, 2019, 2:56 pm

Windows down is the way to go. I don't even know if my ac works because i never tried it. Im a windows down kinda guy

Hacker - May 25, 2019, 2:57 pm

A car without an A/c in this sweltering heat is like the burning fire in hell. Ingenious way to hook up a generator and an A/c, and i bet you stole the idea from me.

MY car :

packofmidgets - May 25, 2019, 3:02 pm

that's so funny lol. I thought that would be the only one but I guess more ppl do it

Sunniebeta - May 25, 2019, 3:05 pm

My old car had no heat and air conditioning. Thankfully I've upgraded lmao

SIM-3257834 - May 25, 2019, 4:45 pm

My POS car with a fucked transmission had a working AC. So many people neglect their cars and spend their money on stupid shit.

Sheep - May 25, 2019, 4:51 pm

I have a hole in the line that feeds the AC juice shit. I'm not a car guy. It's expensive to get it repaired so I go windows down. I live in the country anyways.

stantheman25 - May 25, 2019, 4:53 pm

Mine does infact I used it today because it was a bit warm.

Mix - May 25, 2019, 5:06 pm

Oh god, this thread got me the giggles, Honestly, most cars that are from around 2000s and before don't have working air con anymore. and if you don't use it in the new cars they break so god damn!

Zexi - May 25, 2019, 5:16 pm

Got working A/C but i still roll my windows down and put out my arm through the window as a fucking asshole i really am.

webdev77 - June 6, 2019, 4:38 pm

I opted to avoid swamp rear end by getting ventilated seats in my car. Is it needed? Not at all. But it's very nice.

Pawnhub - June 6, 2019, 5:15 pm

One one of my cars yeah it has A/C the other well not so much it caught on fire right under the AC and power steering pumps. See my first thread if you want more info to that story lmao.

thedogcampaign - June 7, 2019, 12:27 am now i don't have a car lol

Demeter - June 7, 2019, 1:17 am that pic is pretty funny man haha

Shuxas - June 7, 2019, 3:57 am

My car currently doesn't have any ac burned out the clutch somehow, and I gotta have my windows down all the time ,but even still it's hot as hell

packofmidgets - August 2, 2019, 11:10 am

I am sitting in my truck with no AC now days like " FUCK I need 2 of those ac units" lol

Silent Uprising - August 2, 2019, 12:38 pm

Windows down. Hand resting outside the window. Music blasting. It's da life. Fuck AC

debian - August 2, 2019, 1:50 pm

I feel like getting AC installed would be cheaper (unless you already have all that shit).

Too funny though

ririki - August 2, 2019, 3:06 pm

Several years ago yeah, it was extreme.

The AC must have been leaking the liquid as each time I put that to the service place they re-filled the liquid and it was working for the next 14 - 30 days and then stopped working again.

Ivex - August 2, 2019, 3:10 pm

Yes. Although I avoid using it to save on fuel unless its just far too warm.

It gets pretty warm around here so I would have to be using it gas cost or not lol.

marlboro - August 4, 2019, 7:58 am

Hah that's a great idea right there.

noobnoob - August 4, 2019, 10:21 am

I have a car with air conditioning and never fails me

Takehito Morokuzu - August 4, 2019, 1:58 pm

I don't know anyone whose car has no air conditioning. Even cheap cars have it, all that needs to happen is the sun needs to shine on the windows for 1-2 hours with the windows closed and it is roasting, even if it's only 20c outside.

Well at least he tried. That is some trailer park boys shit if I ever seen it

Android 17 - August 4, 2019, 10:07 pm

My work car has no AC. But I work in the heat so any kind of breeze feels cool to me

Venusaur - August 4, 2019, 10:17 pm

Haha i thought the writeup about the bad coffee was the silliest thing ive seen this week, i stand corrected

Mogwai - August 4, 2019, 11:53 pm

AC is important, makes you realize how uncomfortable we would all be without human invention

YES!! I can not get my house to cool down since our ac broke. I cant get it fixed until next month so I am seriously seeing the issues ppl have with no AC in car or at home.

True that, but it does increase activity, and that's good for everyone here.

People moan about LQ posts, I slightly disagree, they are not exactly spam posts otherwise they'd be warned/banned

It is the Lounge though, it's a chill out place where you can kinda talk LQ, otherwise it wouldn't be a lounge

I know what you mean too ? , but how hot is it where you live? Fortunately I live in a place where it's chill without air conditioning even in the summer, but too cold in winter without turning on the heater :(

My car doesn't exist yet

I also sold my first car, I had it and I didn't know how to drive, then I had to move so I was forced to sell the car :/
