Hi!

I am looking to buy a livestream viewbot for Youtube. Can someone suggest a good service provider.

Thanks!

I think you won't find this here, also this does not work as a bot.
You need to find someone who will code you this custom.

I am curious as to why. I see other bots are here wouldn't anyone have had this idea before?

Yeah since there are twitch viewbots available, I thought youtube would be easier to come by since their viewer policies arent as strict as twitch.

Theres a lot out there but you gotta pay some amount of money for certain amount of bot viewers.
