Thread: Do you tell your IRL friends about HF

Spaark - May 31, 2019, 2:02 am

Have any of you refereed your IRL friends to join the forum?

Do you feel weird about people you know in person seeing your posts on the forum? Would you let the two crash or combine?

I don't think you should, I can't see any possible way it could go well.
i guess thats just my opinion

No - haven't told anyone. That's the beauty of these forums, you can just be without any restriction. Its very liberating

Pancake Boat - May 31, 2019, 2:07 am

Hell yeah! I even put HF on my CV...

Guess that's why I can't find a job. ?

Yeah, at least you'll be able to attest to your greatness with HF Appraisers Leadership.

You only have 2 posts so far. Maybe you'll change your mind in the future and bring your mates into the forum :)

Sunniebeta - May 31, 2019, 2:13 am

My circle in real life is very small so I don't mention anything about HF to my so called friends lmao

Sheep - May 31, 2019, 2:17 am

I have several online friends who know about it but dont go near it. One assumes that anything with the word hack or anything you pay crypto for is black hat. Another simply isnt interested in this end of the internet.

So I try not to bug them too much with it. It'd be cool to see what they'd find of interest here but that's okay.

Dope - May 31, 2019, 2:39 am

Yes! I'm here thanks to my boo.

If a post could sum up my life, it would be this one

Cunt - May 31, 2019, 2:57 am

Told a few of my friends who are also interested in this kinda stuff. 2 signed up, they aren't that active. But they upgraded tho.

But no, I don't speak about it openly because my other friends simply wouldn't be interested in it.

Angel - May 31, 2019, 2:58 am

My friends know that I am using HF and various forums, in fact, I learned so much from this forum that I referred them to here to learn different stuff and they did, but they aren't active more.

Enzon - May 31, 2019, 3:18 am

Not really.Keeping this site for me lol

Decoyshot - May 31, 2019, 3:25 am

I don't have any friends so it's only me on this forum ?

that's unfortunate. get social man! Don't give up :)

Bill Gates - May 31, 2019, 3:32 am

No, I wouldn't inflict this on any of my friends. They would get banned within the first 5 mins of reading and responding to some of the topics here.

I had fake friends in school one time I asked my fake friend if he likes me or not and he said he did but he always used to hang out with someone else and be bitchy to me

ShinyThings - May 31, 2019, 3:34 am

Your IRL friends ewhore? You ewhore HF members? I'm confused with this... lol.

Sometimes you just have to roll with the punches haha

Bossk - May 31, 2019, 4:24 am

I discuss HF with two of my friends, they have never bothered to sign up but they think it's very interesting how you can make money and so on here.

Get em in here Bossk. If they've got balls enough to be friends with you, I'm sure they'd survive in here pretty well ?

Mix - May 31, 2019, 7:48 am

I have told my mrs and I think that is about it, Not really mentioned it to others as its called hack forums.

Vibe - May 31, 2019, 7:50 am

I've kinda talked about it a bit to a few but never asked anyone to signup

A + - May 31, 2019, 7:53 am

Very rarely. At school (CS major) if somebody is cool and seems interested, but very rarely. I'm not Tibit

Banter. - May 31, 2019, 11:50 am

Yeah my misses knows i am a part of hack forums, she thinks its cool & even tho she is not a part of HF she respects alot of people here. when we had issues with the birth of our 2nd child alot of members reached out and sent some lovely messages ?

Shrik3 - May 31, 2019, 12:38 pm

Yes I do, just to tell them what this forum is about and how nice it is if you're new to this community!

Pawnhub - May 31, 2019, 1:02 pm

My girlfriend knows she doesn't really care about it. If I had more friends around I doubt they'd care ether but once in a blue moon someone will see me do reconnaissance on a website and be like "why can't you just hack it" They all believe it's at a press of a button and your in. SMH.

oRequiem - May 31, 2019, 1:04 pm

I have no IRL friends tbh, just been focusing on myself more.

GnosticPlayers - May 31, 2019, 1:11 pm

I've refered a few friends to HackForums a couple times (1 via my ref link), they use the site from time to time to gain knowledge on certain aspects of computer science / life.

Silent Uprising - May 31, 2019, 3:18 pm

Yeah my mates know cuz when we hang sometimes and they see me browsing the currency exchange section or virtual game items to sell shit they'd ask and I tell them about the forum. but right now I don't post to much just browse and when I'm with my mates there isn't any real demand for me to get on and check cuz I'm not selling anything right now

BTC - May 31, 2019, 3:21 pm

Jokes on you, I have no IRL friends.

Honestly none of my friends in real life would find interest in it, they probably don't even know this website exists. If it ever needed to be brought up in conversation I'd talk about it, but without reason I just never talk about it.

Skofos - May 31, 2019, 4:13 pm

My friends know that i'm using forum... not all xD

Edit: rip grammar

Marshmallow - May 31, 2019, 4:18 pm

No.

Don't know anyone close enough nor would they be interested.

Annihilus - May 31, 2019, 4:50 pm

Haven't really had anyone ask me if I go on forums yet but I probably would if they ask

webdev77 - May 31, 2019, 4:52 pm

A lot of my friends are on another site that is more general. Kinda sounds like an angry pirate + edit. This forum is tame in many regards compared to the weirdness of other depths of the internet.
