Thread: Goodwill Monday #10

Omniscient - June 3, 2019, 12:36 pm

It's our 10th Goodwill Monday. But since Reputations are now Popularity and they are canned messages it just doesn't feel the same to tell members to give Pop today.

Instead I'd like to ask members to find useful posts or threads and donate Bytes to each other. You can put a custom message in the donation like "Happy Goodwill Monday".

I'm going to grant 10,000 ? to one random donator after 24 hours have passed but you must put "Happy Goodwill Monday" in the donation message and it must be a minimum of 5 ?.

To those who don't know about GWM...it's an HF annual tradition for the first Monday in June to start off the summer.

Easy exploit to get your account closed for ruining HF's official holiday while you're at it.

Glad that's not the case though.
