Hello,

I have a 114 combat level account - OSRS.

it has 200+ quest points (dragon slayer is done), it's all set for farming vorkath, with dhcb, elite void, dragon fire ward, and much more.

The account comes with the email it's registered on.

About 184m bank total, rune pouch, a pet,

Does it come with OG email?

Sorry for the late answer, I don't have a set price yet, I will have to check a little bit around how much they go for.

However, feel free to offer.

Also, yes it does come with the OG email, you can set your phone number and everything on it.

BUMP, still looking to sell it.

Haven't opened rs for months now.

The bank value might've dropped a little bit due to items value going down. (or maybe it went up)
I don't have membership anymore, can't see.
