Credits to the owners of the resources used.

Starting my GFX shop again, let me know what you think of the design. I like to keep things simple and organised personally, with a touch of some creativity.

Looks great. The only advice I'd give would be to make everything a little bigger, it seems too small.

That back drop looks real nice b, what is it?

Brain - July 1, 2019, 3:04 pm

This is a nice design. Well done Zeke!

That looks really nice dude, something about the neon feels slightly off though, but nevertheless very nice work.

Great design! But as other people suggested it seems a little small!
