Do you own all the rights to the full thing? I might have a job for you if so - for my game trailer. Actually pretty sick.

Recommend for HF users who click this thread but don't check the link. Maybe a little heavy on the echo but flows well.

I've followed what you've posted here for a while and man you've come real far with your song writing and vocals.

I must admit at first I had a bit of doubt- Partly because this genre in particular was a scene I involved myself in a few years back so I was somewhat tired of it- but man you've impressed me. Some nice features too.

Production has really stepped up too. Good shit man. Keep at it. Far better at this sound than I ever was.

BulletCake - June 14, 2019, 7:10 am

Fuck this is really amazing. Sleepless is my favorite.

FaggNigg - June 14, 2019, 7:45 am

YoungPriest - June 14, 2019, 10:07 am

I expected some rapper with a crappy microphone but it was actually pretty good. I think you should be able to get some stuff done if you get good contacts. Keep it up (:

Well, I've been learning instruments since I was 6, learning theory at 10, and producing at 12.

However, I recommend follow many youtube tutorials, and just spending countless hours fucking around in a daw.
