Bunnyslippers69 - June 15, 2019, 4:40 am

Started playing this gmod darkrp server (zarp, if anyone knows what I'm talking about) with the name JewFuel. One of the head admins at the time, paramontana, didn't like it and set my name to bunnyslippers. That's all.

Forgot to add that the guy ended up trading nudes with some underage girl that started playing. So my name was given to me by a nonce.

Brendan - June 15, 2019, 7:26 am

It's my name.

Also Omni deleted the closed account that had it so I figured why not.

Dotexe - June 15, 2019, 7:27 am

Takehito Morokuzu - June 15, 2019, 10:49 am

Joel - June 15, 2019, 11:31 am

Because I have a crush on a character from a TV show called Joel.

?ystem - June 15, 2019, 3:54 pm

My original username was SystemCrisis, which is a story for another time, but most people online, and a few in IRL, refer to me as "System", so I naturally just went with that. Plus, I like the way it looks and sounds. It's just the name I identify myself as other than my birth name. And I've kept it as such for about nine years now.

I'm System. Short, sweet and to the point.

Champagnepapi - June 15, 2019, 4:23 pm

In response to OP, I don't want to relate my Hackforums account to any of my other online forum accounts. That's why this username is extremely different than my others. I just liked the definition of Vague relating to an online presence but that was taken.

fsociety365 - June 16, 2019, 11:33 am

Mine's a symbol that represents opposite forces, when coming together, creating a balance and equilibrium.

Pretty obvious and self-explanatory.
