Has this been tested with semi-popular accounts? I understand a certain level is untouchable but have you tested your limits?

ChefPowder - June 16, 2019, 9:27 pm

account is banned until owner contacts snap lol

Chicklets - June 17, 2019, 2:56 am

What are the chances of this working? If you're down to do a demo I might buy.

duplex - June 17, 2019, 2:57 am

OP, how exactly does this work? Like, the method?

It does not work with celebrity accounts, of course.

I have tried it on accounts with about 3 mil snapscore, works fine.

Featured accounts were harder to take down, but also worked in the end.

(Jun 16, 2019 09:27 PM)ChefPowder Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) account is banned until owner contacts snap lol
Not really.

There is a way to get your account back, but it's not very easy. The method for that is out here somewhere. I personally don't have it.

(Jun 17, 2019 02:56 AM)Chicklets Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What are the chances of this working? If you're down to do a demo I might buy.

It works 95% of the time on personal accounts (non-celebrity, non-featured).

(Jun 17, 2019 02:57 AM)Duplex Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) OP, how exactly does this work? Like, the method? You follow simple steps.

It involves contacting support, but all you have to do is copy-paste.

Not fake.

Vouch for Alanox and his service! I purchased a ban from him and the customer service couldn't have been better. Communication was excellent and fast and he answered all questions I had. I would definitely recommend him if you need an account banned on Snapchat. Thanks man.

It only takes a few minutes for you to ban.

After that, their account gets banned in about 1-2 days.

Interested, but how much time does your process takes ?

Manks - June 20, 2019, 8:18 am

Two things

If the person gets banned, contacts snapchat and asks why; what would snapchat say?
and any chance this could get back to me?

2 minutes to ban, but it takes 1-2 business days for the account to be deleted.

That's not the reason why some people aren't getting their bans through. It's Snapchat's fault, and it affects their whole support section--not only people who try to ban.

Also, it's not really SE as all you do is copy & paste a sentence and send it to them.

OP has not replied to my requests for an update, and others are also complaining.
DWC

SIM-2763166 - June 28, 2019, 4:36 pm

Clarification:

As in my previous announcement, I stated that Snapchat has a heavy load of support tickets at the moment, so it will take a bit longer.

The reason it has been taking so long is also because I hired a person to do the bans for me, sharing the money with them. Unfortunately it appears they had skipped much of the information and steps for doing the bans. So yes, in a way, I got scammed.

From now on, bans will be fully initiated, processed and monitored by me.

For the inconvenience, I want to give all SERVICE buyers 2 options:

1. Full refund.
2. Wait a bit longer for me to process the bans manually.

(Please PM to claim your refund)

This does not apply for people who bought the method, because the method DOES work. It was just performed wrong from our side.

However, I will release an update for the method to increase your chances of banning.

Thank you all for your patience,
Alanox.

method does not work.

response I got from snapchat:

Hi,

Thanks for reaching out.

To deactivate your ---'s account, please go here. You can reactivate the account for up to 30 days by logging in to Snapchat with the old username and password. After 30 days, you will no longer be able to reactivate the account, and it will be scheduled for deletion. Once an account is permanently deleted the username will no longer be available.

Please Note: Your ---'s username and password are necessary for you to delete their account.

OP sent me a new transcript, trying that, but I doubt anything will change.
