There's literally a register button, just use Chrome and auto-translate.

On the main page you linked, top right, blue button.

It says email, password, and then solve the captcha.

Idk what page you're on, literally go to the main page. You'll see it in the top right.

I'm from Canada, not even using a VPN.

But yes, you have to use a VPN if you're inside America.
