Thread: Passed my drivers test today. Also picked my college classes. Good day!

Ravioli - June 19, 2019, 8:52 pm

The process of getting my drivers license has taken me a little over 2 years (don't ask... just don't lmao). I am proud to say that I passed today with 0 errors and I am so ecstatic about it! :) Yes, it was my third time retaking the test. Still though! 0 errors? LETS GO.

After that I had a counselling meeting at my college and I picked my classes! I am a computer science major and a business administration minor. I only have 3 classes this upcoming fall semester as well! AND ONLY 2 DAYS!! (Tuesday, Thursday). Incredibly happy about this because I just graduated high school last week and I am SOOO done with 8-3:30 5 days a week bullshit.

I didn't mention this in the title, but I also got one of my insurance settlements notarized today (because of <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5968484>) It's $xx,xxx and I'm expecting another $xxx,xxx because of the excess settlement I'll also be receiving. :)

I haven't had this good of a day in a while guys. Been needing something like this.. everything is going right for me right now and I couldn't be happier!! :)

Also, I've been waiting to get my license to ask this girl I've been talking to for a long time out on a date. I'm thinking of asking her if she's busy this weekend.

Oh, and one more thing! This didn't happen today, but 2 days ago I tripped for the first time in 2 years and it was 100% the best trip I've ever had. It really helped me understand how grateful I should be.. after the car accident (look at the thread above if you don't know what I'm talking about). During the whole trip I was so euphoric just appreciating that I'm still alive and well.

How was your day guys?

I knew life was going too good right now.. my GPU just died :/

feelsbad, however I was expecting this to happen eventually. It's a 4+ year old gaming laptop and I abused the fuck out of it lol. I'll probably get a new one when I buy my new car as well.
