Not sure how old you are but there are TONS of ways to earn $10 heck $1k+ online/day if you learn.

To list a few:

- Ecom
- Offering Services
(writing, graphics, editing, literally anything)
- Growing / Flipping instagram accounts

Most of these no-one will spoon feed ya so just go online, use the head you were given, and take advantage of google.com lmao.

cheers.

You can even start as basic as going to Garage sales/FB market and reselling products.

FREELANCE.

Your goal is $10 a day.

Let's say you are completely useless and don't know anything.

You can still offer VA (virtual assistant) service at $5/hour and work for 2 hours a day.

Or, do 2 gigs at fiverr at each of them at $5.

$10/day is easier than you realize.

10$ for hour it a great goal.

Per day is too low.

ceevie - July 4, 2019, 3:33 pm

try ewhoring. it's easy money

matthewcurtin - July 4, 2019, 4:15 pm

amazon has a service that lets people get paid to try out softwares and assorted tasks. def check it out

mikimiki - July 6, 2019, 4:15 am

Maybe your should try to do social engineering.

So you order something like PC parts (processor, or something which is not heavy..) and tell them that package was empty. Should work with Amazon one or two times and other stores too. To be sure use credit card company or paypal so you can force chargeback if store is not easy.

Try to find easy store and repeat and you'll get some thousands $ without too hard job

Lol 10$ a day would be the average salary in my country so i am really interested, but less is good too.

i don't have any skills i am willing to learn though, i am still studying but i do have time.

Tried a lot of things, starting with nothing is the issue.
