Thread: Awards Market

Omniscient - June 25, 2019, 2:46 pm

I will be closing the Awards Market on July 1st. It's not been the success I had hoped. My plan is to run a sale on both the commission and the minimum sale fee until then.

Minimum award price: 500 Bytes

Commission rate: 5%

I will likely open the awards market on special occasions instead of 24/7. This should help keep awards rare.

Thank you.

Nas - June 25, 2019, 2:49 pm

This is such a great addition. I really like this idea and would make awards rarer as it used to be.

tux1 - June 25, 2019, 2:50 pm

Good idea, best to keep the awards so they need to be earned

To be honest, they should start being handed out more for good effort/behavior.

Make them less sell-able but more personal and rewarding.

Roberto Scorpious Malfoy - June 25, 2019, 2:53 pm

Where can I read more about those awards, have been inactive for a few weeks and I haven't heard about em

Bossk - June 25, 2019, 2:57 pm

It completely ruined award rarity imho, I used to be amazed when i was someone wearing a Blackhatter for example

Mix - June 25, 2019, 3:12 pm

Omni me and you need to have words about this, I must collect all 6 pokeballs.

I am happy to see this move and I am glad to see my awards stand out more now. But like I said I would love to have a row of pokeballs.

SIM-3257834 - June 25, 2019, 3:13 pm

This is going to hurt lavish living return in his "award investment".

iNviZ - June 25, 2019, 3:24 pm

I think it's a great call boss. I agree a ton with this. Thank you

Lavish Living - June 25, 2019, 3:48 pm

Close the award market permanently! Derp derp whoop whoop.

Looks like I'll never sell off the rest of my beautiful awards. But shit I lightweight miss my wings!!

Haha, I would love a boat tbh.

SIM-3323508 - June 25, 2019, 4:13 pm

I like the move tbh rewards have decreased value drastically due to the ability to sell.

Dorrance - June 25, 2019, 4:15 pm

I love the new calls and implementations you have been adding to the site boss. Keep up the good work dedication to make the forums better.

kawaii - June 25, 2019, 4:39 pm

A good idea in my opinion.

The awards market completely ruined the value and rarity of some awards that in recent years people have worked extremely hard to earn. Though, it certainly did wipe the smile from the faces of the few intolerable 'award elitists' who would hold themselves above other members because of the awards they had.

SoulZeh - June 25, 2019, 4:40 pm

I've never seen much point in the award market, well for me anyway as I can never ever hold on to my Bytes to even buy anything. Also the fact that people were selling awards for a ridiculous amount was insane.

#PRAISED OGLOVER.

Rarity doesn't change in a member to member transfer. The award market adds no new awards to circulation. None.

Because of that, they became rare over time.

I guess this is meant to help that a bit D:

Even more from all the people banned for abusing the bytes ?

Traum - June 25, 2019, 9:00 pm

This is for the best. I didn't like that people could buy awards they didn't earn.

Deal - June 25, 2019, 10:34 pm

Fuck Lavish for having the flamer award. He is not worthy.

Anyway. Glad you are closing the market.

Pyro - June 25, 2019, 10:55 pm

I like the awards being granted for something rather than buying for $ / bytes

Transporter007 - June 26, 2019, 8:45 am

The comments 'from a member ect ect' in the award description degrade the award imo, compared to if Omni had given it anyway.

Octavia - June 26, 2019, 9:55 pm

Omni, loan me a few bytes for awards, thanks.

Market started well but award value started to decline and became hard to manage buying with house cut and all.

Was never an "award investment" - I donated thousands before the award market, without any anticipation or intent on getting a "return".

The amount I spent on buying other people's awards is minuscule, and I've actually broken somewhat even on all the private sales and purchases tbh. Did some nice flips.

I would be completely content if the award market was permanently closed today. Like my current award layout

Zexi - June 27, 2019, 6:36 pm

Honestly I was hoping for this comeback it could make or break the game.

The only thing is it would take away from posting and I think that's one of the reasons why it hasn't been touched yet.

The whole point of the eggs is to get more people to post on HF. They are rewards for activity. ???

The opposite. Those awards can be obtained regardless of if a member is selling so they were less rare. The Award Market has more sought after awards so people got their awards there instead of from HF.
