We was trading, I would give him a $25 agc for a £10 agc. I sent the code then he kept saying it isn't working even though I've never had a problem with a code from this source and haven't gave the code to anyone else at all.

Funny thing. Since I've joined .l337 has been sending me pms about everything. First he offered to do the icloud activation lock I need removed. I told him I wouldn't pay until it was done. Then he wanted to exchange my btc for agc. I got a shady vibe from him so I never took the deals any further.

User is definetly shady, I also got a shady vibe when he refused to give me the card first even though I'm way more reputable.

But I though oh well it's a $25 agc noone's gonna scam for $25 that's just stupid, but turns out people really be scamming a small amount like that which I found hilarious.
