Sorry if this is the wrong section but...

This guy is scamming hundreds of users. His website doesn't work, some of us have been waiting for our orders to be fulfilled for over 17 days.

I can't open a deal dispute cause I ordered through their website instead of HF.

The reason I've been scammed is cause he is being allowed to promote in HF.

Hello fellow and very friendly user who browses the great Hack Forums, if you don't want to do a deal dispute, you could always just do a community alert.

If you have a contract, open a deal dispute (as you already did). That's it.

His thread has HF Contract links. You should be using them.
