So I've not found any threads related to this, but the trailer for My hero academia season 4 got released a few weeks ago. Anyone plan on watching it?

I'm watching it for sure, hoping that we're going to see more fights and such, really enjoyed watching Deku against Muscular.

Is Season 3 alright? 2 was boring for me, kind of recycling the same story.

Season 3 was alright, but was personally less enjoyable than the previous season. If you've been finding MHA boring, I can't imagine it would change that opinion.

Yessss! Been waiting patiently for it, going to an anime con in NYC soon and the dub cast will be there.

Boring is a strong word, just not as hype. Yeah probably skip then and stick to my drifting cars.
