Looks like the biggest pasted piece of trash ever, only reason these cheats are ever invite only is because it attracts more people with curiosity and to feel like you're part of a special community, you will always want what the average person can't have.

I'm mostly just looking for a cheat that has backtracking. Almost every paid cheat that's not invite only doesn't have it and I just want it for a legit closet cheating type thing.

AW has it, onetap has it, unity has it, the other ones are pastes/shit but im sure they have it except koryo and PA.

AW's backtrack is called position adjustment, onetap has it in the legit bot and is literally called backtrack... Onetaps ragebot has backtrack automatically enabled by default.

I'm not trolling, have no need to be. I've just never been able to find a paid cheat that has backtrack. Thanks though, going to purchase AW.
