Thread: Award Goals

Omniscient - July 4, 2019, 12:30 pm

HackForums now offers Award Goals.

With each goal you can earn an award. On the page you'll see where you are in a percentage wise to earning each award. The page will grant you the awards so just by visiting you can earn immediate awards if you've reached certain goals.

Currently 6 awards are available but we will certainly be adding many more to come.

I hope members enjoy this new feature.

Any questions?

I might be taking it the wrong way as it does say 100% but it still refers to saying "Earn 1000 popularity." And then saying it's complete. Once omni removes all awards the process will be fine.

Seems like you only have of the awards.

I don't like the stature of just reaching 100. I think it should be increased to 500-1000 to separate boys from men.

Also I just noticed some upgraded user has 104 b-rating, but no businessman award.

Money- - July 6, 2019, 7:48 pm

Is there any award for the Ewhore Section? I know it sounds cringe but hey gotta award these who contribute good content there.

You can get the award in 7 years, 20 days, 6 hours and 19 minutes.

But on-topic, it is still very obtainable. Never give up.
