Thread: My doggo's

Mix - July 4, 2019, 10:22 pm

So I recently shared a few pics of my huskies and thought why nopt share them here as I dont post in this section to much I wanted it to change a little bit.

So first comes Angel she is a Siberian husky and I took her in at 6months of age as her previous owners where abusive to her and broke her right leg, The vets took her in for about 2 months under strict care and that is where I got her from, From the moment I saw her I fell in love with her. Angel is now just over 2 years old and is pregnant.

Next comes Dexter, he is the mate for Angel as huskies should always be in pairs at minimum. I got Dexter about a year ago now, He has turned a lot darker since he was a pup but is still adorable with his one blue eye and funny behavior when he is hyperactive.

Sadly ext comes my baby choco, he sadly passed 3 weeks ago due to a seizure and a brain tumor. I cant get my phone to air drop them right now But I will add some pics tomorrow and tell you guys a little more later on down the line as its still a touchy subject for me as He was my shadow and was always on my side in bed and everywhere around the house and even on walks with no lead he was the best behaving dog I have had yet and its mad to say he was a runt of the litter that we bought back to life twice after his mother killed him.

Things happen, dogs don't last forever but he was 8 years old and a Jack Russel normally last about 15+ and it all happened within a space of 2 hours.

Thank you for the kind words Dup

Aw, I do want a Husky, but don't they have to be walked a lot? People abusing animals is my weak point tbh.

If I saw anyone breaking a dog's leg, I think I would kill them if I had the chance, it's a sign of pure evil.

Yeah plus they need to be kept in a cool place as they hate the heat.

She's adorable dude, she's also named after my cat who passed away last year, people who love animals/dogs are pure in heart imo.

wow, that is a nice coincidence, if I found the old owners to this day I would probably break there leg to make them know how it feels.

It's my weakness, it's scary because I probably would kill someone if they attacked an animal. They are evil people, anyone who hurts animals needs to die, period.

completely agree with you, they just have no heart and they deserve to die.

Lovely looking dogs . I'm so sorry to hear about one passing . Sad times ..

I have 2 Black labradors both brothers. Last Sat night one of them had a fit/seizure got the fright of my life but when i had them out for a walk just a few hours before the 1 who had the fit picked up something from the pavement and ate it the vet thinks it might have been maybe slug poison .

To be honest if i hadn't have seen it happening i would never had known as he seems to be perfectly fine but i'm just terrified it happens again !

Ahh okay one of the guys at work has one different colors but yeah they are hyper lil guys. Other than "normal" hip issues I wasn't aware that this is something common, either way I am sorry for your loss mate.

I always enjoy looking at a Husky, but I feel bad after reading what happened with Choco and I am sorry for your loss.

Nice profile btw, Wolfpack leader! I am not sure what that means, but I like the design of the avatar with 3 wolf heads.
