I won't give you any criticism on your layout since you're an artist, I think it's important for you to come up with your own way of showcasing and expressing your work. I find it interesting though your layout of course, and I find it a pleasure to be able to view the portfolio? website of another artist.

I myself am an Illustrator, i plan on having a Portfolio website created soon as well and yours gives me some inspiration on how i'd like my own pieced together.

Your art is definitely interesting, I'd buy some if I had the free cash to spend on luxuries. Keep making great work and getting better homie.

unironically love your work

i remember when you posted the first "version(?)" of your portfolio site here and ngl it was p bad but its great to see that it's gotten way cleaner and your art is still weird af reminds me of something more basquiat-esque, or maybe something like the Rattmann illustrations in portal 2 except with more violent expressions of not-always-so-violent emotions. i love that intensity deadass probs gonna buy some prints in august when i got some spare cash

My old site was a broken mis-managed piece of crap. I've been working with wordpress and I actually work with wordpress with my real job now as well which helps a lot. I'm happy you enjoy the new layout. I'm pretty satisfied with it as well. Took me about two days to set up, still need to do a few more color changes, mainly jus working on site speeds and SEO.

I love the way you explained my art as well btw. Also no rush, I appreciate when people enjoy my art as is. Feel free to email me or sent a contact message if you want something specific and it isn't listed.

I appreciate you respecting the layout idea. I wanted it to kinda hold a professional/sleek style but hold my own personality into it as well.

When you make your site just get crazy with it! Make it unique to you so it shows your style.

Also understandable, I appreciate the opinion nonetheless! ?

i see what he means

maybe not the footer footer, but like on the home page at the bottom, the quick links menu is kinda long/spacey, which makes the entire section fill up with blank space

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

the overall navigation bar needs an overhaul bro, it looks a bit BTEC.

the fact that the circle logo is cut off at the bottom bothers me too, make it a whole circle you're trying to sell products for 150+ on there but at the same time you're not marketing yourself as a mature person with pages like this <https://artbynull.com/epic/> grey on grey.

Tunechi - July 15, 2019, 2:44 am

These are really good, do you sell rights or create custom pieces?

Yes I do, the prices vary when it comes to that.

This is amazing! The expressions and the psychedelic style are what make it special. It gives me feelings of nostalgia.

emotionnull - August 1, 2020, 4:47 pm

I just updated the shop and added products. let me know what you think

emotionnull - August 5, 2020, 8:24 pm

still looking for opinions on the overall site.

emotionnull - August 18, 2020, 12:40 pm

Been updating this a bit more, what yall think
