Thread: Why is LGBT \(especially gay\)'s bashing so popular ?

soukyo-rkz - July 7, 2019, 12:14 am

First of all I'm not trolling there, refrain for telling me so because I just can't understand why there are so much insults towards us.

I love men, but will never understand why many people (including there) refer to gay to mock something. Is it just like referring to black people by saying nigga ?

We just are ourselves. Remember, being gay isn't a choice.

Let me know what do you think,
thanks

Popular how? In which fucking society do you live in where people actually think gay bashing is popular?

Fucking McDonalds is popular. Apple is popular. UFC is popular. Fag bashing in any form is frowned upon by 99% of the modern world.

Don't come here looking for sympathy dude. I've never been bashed for my sexual orientation and if you have, I'm sorry to hear it. But it sure as fuck isn't popular.

Edit: if you're talking about verbal bashing: it's because we're different and easy targets. Majority of the time it's in a joking matter and you gotta role with the punches and throw some back. (verbal).

You're like 5 years late with this question.

These days publicly bashing gays/trans/any other protected outlier group is basically suicide.

I think alot of the negative notions associated with homosexuality in different sections of the world can be traced back to a few events. A while back the Russian government put out propoganda about homosexuality and made attempts to associate them with zoophilia. In Uganda homosexuality wasn't originally viewed negatively until Western influence. I don't happen to be gay but at least where I'm from gay doesn't necessarily refer to something bad when used outside of insults. For example, Joe rogan has a bit out this which I think is accurate. Something can be gay without being good or bad, some things are just gay. Like wrestling, plays, glitter. They aren't good or bad they just have a gay feeling to them. And plenty of straight guys like a few gay things. Like Coldplay.

Reddit is crap now.

I do get pissed at all the companies pandering during Pride month.

I would say it is not popular to pick on gay people, But I don't walk in your shoes. I don't know your culture or your location.

Sorry if people give you shit.

it's just something ur used to using it as an insult more than actually bashing the gayness, it's something like saying the N word used as an insult more than the fact that someone is black or anything else

All males in my workplace and others I've met hate gays and Australian Aboriginals and will 'cuss' them out for it, not necessarily bash them however.

The lgbt community is the pedophile community. That is why they sexualize children in "pride parades" and on bill boards of New York City. When I was a child my black friends father told me all about the lgbt community. He was a great man and a role model of the community. Healthy living is never promoted and that's why they promote sodomy to the children because it goes against god. You don't get taught the high rate of STD/HIV/AIDS in the lgbt community. It's all a trendy thing for children to feel like they are in a popular group. New age bullshit. I'm so happy to be old and not grow up with such a pathetic generation.
