Thread: Method to get the newest iPhones for under \$100

camden © - July 7, 2019, 12:17 am

Hi, I'm selling a method I've been using since December (pretty sure I'm the only one that knows this, and I also figured this out on my own)

With my method I have gotten 6 iPhones (XRs/MAXs) for under $100

XR - $52 & XS MAX (256gb) for $87

I can show proof as needed (of course).

Please, no trolls, or wasting my time.

Currently I'll sell this for $600 BTC or PayPal.

I've resold all the iPhones and have made over 3k in a couple days of doing this.

NOTE: No vouch copies will be given due to saturation. I may change my mind on this later.

Thanks.

EDIT: Adding proof.

That's pretty cool as long as it's 100% legit. What's your price for this?

Currently stated at $600 BTC. Thanks.

This may be a bit stupid, but are you offering any vouch copies? I can provide a detailed and thorough review.

Medellin - July 7, 2019, 7:56 am

I don't see this thread as something legit!

Even a iPhone X/XS/XR Replica may be worth 300$

SIM-4018496 - July 7, 2019, 8:08 am so all the way back to december and its today that you want to sell the method? also if its legit why you made only 3k when you could have made at least 30k?

Need more proof! DWC

It's not so private method.

It's just refurbished phones

Please, i don't know if I stated it already but you can also PM and for more proof. I'm currently using one of the iPhones and I can provide GameStop Trade In receipts of getting cash for phones I bought Sure, also, when you go pickup 30,000 phones it looks pretty suspicious at the same store, so I stopped at 6. There isn't a store close by so I haven't done it a lot, I don't have a car, my friend was taking me.

Haha, no, it's not just the website there is more stuff you have the do on the website. I just don't want to post it and retards try to tell or the website sees and figures out, trying to stay safe you know?

It's actually a large retailer.

I just re-read this unnecessary comment since I just woke up, you stated $300 when I never said that, lol...

There literally $57 for the XR and I've sold them and I just made $341 the other day for one.

Would you do this deal with a MM and you get your funds when the phone arrives to me with that price range and I confirm that it's legit?

SIM-3205632 - July 7, 2019, 8:44 am

If this is real i'm paying you 250$ for a XS max right now.

PM me after work - I get off at 3:45 CT I'm about to go in at 11.

I'll let you go pick it up first then you pay since you're highly reputable, as long as you return with a review since kids always have to post LQ comments.

Yes, I will. Message me after work at 3:45.

It doesn't ship, you pick it up at a retailer.

I'll let you know.

So do you have to have a Verizon account for this to work? Cuz BB doesn't let you purchase one without signing into a phone service account.

Very interested if we can use a MM

No, if you don't. I actually didn't use Verizon at the time I used Straight Talk and the SIM still worked and I could make phone calls/ use DATA.

I've figured out what you meant by the abbreviation. You don't order it through there, you just pick it up there.

I've actually had people I've sold it to use it on AT&T, oddly enough.

(Jul 7, 2019 10:21 AM)Druze Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Very interested if we can use a MM

Sure, I have a couple people wanting to do this I'll probably only sell (3) copies. W/ a MM of course, fees on buyers side.

I'm on break right now, I will reply to messages after work.

The.Businessman - July 7, 2019, 11:49 am

I'll buy it, Just add me on discord. I'll use a middleman from here for the deal.

the method is he sells 2 copies of this and then he can buy the real iphone from verizon lol edit:

seen pics and nice method

puts phone on 2 year payment plan. as pays $87 to get phone to his door for first payment. so ops title of get phone under $100 is true just you will be paying the other 1k out of pocket

quite the meme of a sales thread to be honest

Are you slow?

No you don't, you don't input any of your information, and it's not a payment plan either.

You don't purchase it thru the site, you just pick it up there, it's a entirely different site.

Please before posting retarded comments, verify with me.

I have a iPhone XS Max I'm still using and I'm not paying shit on it, lol.

While i'm not saying your method is bad or anything. I do think it sounds unreal and ridiculous, and i would like to know more this method definitely.

Also the ending of your response to his comment wasn't any less childish tbh :\ And you're a new member aswell. Just keep up the good work.

Also can you resell a phone directly without selling the method :) If buyer pays shipping of course.

Goodluck with sales ?

Thanks, but it's not shipping, they pick it up.

But I have most of the boxes of the phones lol and order proof/trade in receipts of me getting cash for the phones.

And yup, retarded replies get retarded answers. Don't have time for it.
