Thread: [\[UPDATE\] True Life / Life Sales - RECOVERED OSRS ACCOUNT - UID #2867299](#)

Mobism - July 7, 2019, 12:35 pm

Update 7/10/19

ACCOUNT HAS BEEN RECOVERED AND ENTIRE 130M BANK HAS BEEN CLEARED.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

True Life claims after 10+ DIFFERENT account recovery appeals at DIFFERENT times he was FINALLY successful.

10 appeals? All denied? What made that last attempt successful and all the ones prior failures? Smells like BULLSHIT to me.

The first two (2) times True Life had recovered the accounts back on my behalf almost IMMEDIATELY BEFORE SUBMITTING ANY REQUESTS True Life had asked me what e-mail I want to have the recovery appeal sent to. After I PM'd him my e-mail I had my account back within 10 minutes both times.

In these NEW 9-10 DIFFERENT account recovery appeals True Life "CLAIMS" he submitted on my behalf NOT ONCE did he ask me for an e-mail to register on the account. NOT A SINGLE TIME. He just "CLAIMED" he submitted the appeals and they kept being denied. Which is why he "CLAIMS" he submitted over 10+ different appeals. OK, no problem. We'll get back to this.

Next, True Life PMs me on 7/7/19 (4 days after him "SUBMITTING 10+ APPEALS") the following:
Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Now WHY would an ORIGINAL OWNER of the account who has recovered the account SUCCESSFULLY 2 times before be asking me about recovery info?
Especially when he claims he's submitted 10 appeals for me over the past week. LOL.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Hi All,

I am making this post to spread awareness through out the forums.
Especially to those who are interested in purchasing ANY type of accounts from True Life / Life Sales.

Less than a year ago I purchased a 40 attack 99 strength pure (nothing else on the account) from True Life for $55.

Everything went well for 4-5 months until one day I tried logging on and realized the password was changed.

I immediately submitted an account recovery appeal using all the information True Life provided me when I purchased the account.

The appeal was almost immediately denied (5-10 minutes).

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

This made me very skeptical as I believed True Life was a legitimate salesman and provides 100% accurate info with all accounts he sales. Obviously I was wrong.

I proceed to PM True Life via HackForums asking him if he had recovered the account for whatever reason..

He assures me that it was NOT him, and that he will be able to recover the account for me without an issue..

At this point I really believed it was NOT True Life that recovered the account, but looking back I'm 1000% sure it was him the first time as well.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Sure enough, within 10 minutes True Life submitted an appeal on my behalf and sent me the link to reset my password.

By the time I logged back onto the account, my entire bank of roughly ~60M had been cleared as I did not have a bank PIN set (my fault).

I was not worried about my bank, I was just happy to have the account back as I was worried I had been scammed by an UB3R member.

Spoiler (Click to View)

This time I learned from my previous mistakes and set a bank PIN on the account as well as switched the registered e-mail to the account.

After retrieving the account back I continued to play on it for another 3-4 months until... I tried logging in and this time the account was "Locked."

The password was still the same thing, but the account was locked this time. I noticed because I had received an e-mail earlier in the morning saying my password reset request has been submitted. Obviously this alerted me as I did not submit any requests to change my password.

To "UNLOCK" a Runescape account you MUST submit an account recovery form and MUST provide 100% accurate information of "Original Owner".

I waited until I was home from work before I PM'd True Life AGAIN asking him if he recovered the account he sold me...

Before I sent the PM via Hackforums I tried signing on to my account again and noticed the account was no longer "LOCKED" and the password had been changed.

This obviously meant that someone submitted an account recovery appeal and submitted 100% original owner information.

But how could True Life submit an appeal on my behalf if I still had not PM'd him at that time?

At this point I knew 100% True Life had recovered the account himself and attempted to clear my bank AGAIN.

Luckily I had a bank pin set and it would take 3 days to delete it.

I proceed to PM him via Hackforums, and the replies I got this time weren't nearly as helpful from the first time.

He begins to deny that he recovered the account and is very confident that I was hacked/scammed by someone else.

After a whole day of going back and fourth with PMs with True Life he finally submits an appeal on my behalf, which of course gets approved within 10 minutes AGAIN.

This was EXTREMELY fishy to me because the first time he recovered the account within 2 PMs with no questions asked.

Again, 3-4 months pass again..... This time on 7/3/19 I tried logging in and the account's password was changed.

I was recording PK clips on the account one hour prior to my accounts password being changed. Here is a clip of the account 1 HOUR before with my bank value of 130M+.

Spoiler (Click to View)

I proceed to message Tue Life AGAIN for the 3rd time about this same account which he is "one and only original owner" of.

THIS TIME THINGS GOT SUPER FISHY WHILE PMING TRUE LIFE. HE STARTS OFF BY TELLING ME THAT HE DID NOT RECOVER THE ACCOUNT FOR THE 3RD TIME AND THAT HE WILL ASSIST ME IN RECOVERING THE ACCOUNT AGAIN. I ASSUMED HE WOULD PM ME WITHIN THE NEXT 15 MINUTES JUST LIKE THE PREVIOUS 2 TIMES. THIS TIME HE DID NOT. I DID NOT RECEIVE A PM FROM TRUE LIFE UNTIL HOURS LATER WHEN I MESSAGED HIM ASKING FOR UPDATES. HE PROCEEDS TO GIVE ME EXCUSES OF HIM BEING AT WORK AND DOESN'T HAVE ENOUGH TIME RIGHT NOW. THE ENTIRE DAY I'M WATCHING HIS ACCOUNT SURF HACKFORUMS. HE THEN TELLS ME HE HAS PHYSICAL THERAPY SO I BEGAN TO UNDERSTAND A LITTLE MORE AND GAVE HIM MORE TIME. I KEPT MESSAGING HIM FOR UPDATES AND HE KEEPS REPLYING WITH "THEIR SYSTEM IS SHIT" OR "I SUBMITTED ANOTHER APPEAL BECAUSE SOMETHING GOT FUCKED" AND OTHER EXCUSES TO BUY TIME. AT THIS POINT I KNEW HE WAS ATTEMPTING TO STALL FOR 3 DAYS UNTIL MY BANK PIN WAS REMOVED BECAUSE IN EARLIER CONVERSATION HE WAS ASKING HOW MUCH MONEY I HAD IN MY BANK. I TOLD HIM I ONLY HAD ENOUGH MONEY FOR A BOND BECAUSE THAT WAS VERY SUSPICIOUS IN ITSELF. SURELY ENOUGH HE GIVES ME THE SAME BULLSHIT EXCUSES FOR 3 DAYS STRAIGHT. ON THE 3RD DAY 7/6/19 I'M PKING IN W25 AND SEE MY ACCOUNT ONLINE. I KNEW HE HAD GOT INTO THE BANK BECAUSE HE WAS NOT IN THE SAME GEAR WHEN I LOGGED OFF. THIS ENTIRE 3 DAYS IM PMING HIM ASKING HIM FOR UPDATES AND I KEEP GETTING RUN AROUND EXCUSES. THEN ON THE 3RD DAY HE TELLS ME ALL "3 APPEALS HE SUBMITTED" GOT DENIED AND THAT JAGEX RECOVERY SYSTEM IS FUCKED BECAUSE OF IPS BLAH BLAH BLAH. EXCUSES.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Here is a clip of him on my account on the 3rd day when bank pin was removed; Please NOTE: The Time & Date (3rd day), the RSN in green, and the stats at which point the account was recovered.

Again, I purchased this account with 40 attack 99 strength and NOTHING else.

Spoiler (Click to View)

I do realize True Life / Life Sales won't be banned and I will not see that account again. I just do not want other members to be scammed by True Life the way I was.

Now I get to post,

In response to your post, you have already previously disputed our contract AND the PayPal payment. Which both our now resolved. I didn't recover this account from you. Are you telling me all the streamers and such weren't their account when it got recovered from them? I'm sorry you feel the need to make this thread. But I didn't recover the account from you.

Sure sounds like that..

Once again, I know you will not admit it and I know you won't be banned. But I know this thread will prevent lots of new members from being scammed in the future by you.

Also,

Streamers? Who mentioned anything about streamers lol. The proof is in the post brother. Regardless if you admit it. lol.

I'm sorry but a few screenshots of the account you claim to have purchased in pvp worlds hardly makes it to be me on the account. Like I said I didn't recover the account. I attempted to help you with my best efforts. And it failed. I told you I would continue to try and help recover it and you may have a replacement. By making this thread you threw that offer out of the windows

As I told you in earlier PMs I do not want and wouldn't take your account either way lol.

Are you saying the screenshot of me seeing you on my account in PvP discredits all other proof in this thread?

What makes you think it was me on the account? Because you say it is? This thread is irrelevant and is nothing but you say you say. I made me offer for you. And you turned it down. Looks more to me like you lost your bank at the sand casino and trying to find a out with a free pass because you're angry.

Wouldn't you think I'd be asking for my 130M back? lol.

It is kind of curious how he was able to successfully recover the account for you in the past, but this time when you had a bigger cash stack, he said he couldn't.

Also if he provided you with the same details to recover, wonder what made his attempts successfully over yours. Surely not just an ip address would stop it, especially if you had been playing on that IP for a period of time and tried to recovery from it.

Definitely something a little fishy going on here. Hope you two get it sorted out.

The IP has everything to do with a recovery. Doesn't matter how long you play on an account.

I used the information you gave me 3 times and they were all denied.

But NOT once, but TWICE, when you recover it. It is approved almost instantly.

Lol. Just stop bro. You're making it worse for yourself..

The information I gave him was 100% accurate and true. If it didn't let him recover. It's an ip issue. "Location issue". I've attempted to help him and even asked if he would like a replacement account "better account" until the other one is recovered back. And he refused. The situation as far as this alert and what he says and claims is out of my control.

If my IP (which hasn't changed since I bought the account) is now recognized as the OO why am I not able to recover account with the information you provided me when I initially purchased the account? Is it because the info isn't real or does Jagex not recognize my IP??

There are a ton of factors that play into this. For starters, I'd go about cleaning your computer. If someone is able to repeatedly have access to your account, they can just keep clearing your account. As for recoveries go, Runescape is extremely IP sensitive especially if the recovery is coming from an original IP address. True Life claims these are original accounts so I would definitely think his password appeals get accepted over yours, regardless of the time you've put on the account. The only reason I'm suggesting that there is someone else taking these accounts from you is because I've bought a MAXED 60 attack pure with a max house on it. These accounts are extremely valuable and I likely have some money worth taking on there as well. None of which True Life has ever taken from me... and its been about 5-6 months.

I've only ever had good experiences with him, he's a genuine guy, so it's really hard for me to say it would be him. I do not think it is.

Like I told True Life in PMs, there's no way I was RAT'd/Keylogged/Phished, as he claims I have been, because I run security sweeps on my PC almost daily.

I also play on 5-6 other accounts none of which were compromised other than the one mentioned.

Lavish Living - July 7, 2019, 11:10 pm

I'm not going to take any sides in this,

But I bought a maxed staked from True Life, like a year ago...

And the same thing happened to me, so to speak... quick recap - I resold the account, 3 months later it was hijacked/recovered. True life recovered for me quickly, then 3-4 months later it got recovered again.

He recovered it again for me... Take this as you will, just my experience with him.

I figured as much by your reply.

But I bought a maxed staked from True Life, like a year ago...

And the same thing happened to me, so to speak... quick recap - I resold the account, 3 months later it was hijacked/recovered. True life recovered for me quickly, then 3-4 months later it got recovered again.

He recovered it again for me... Take this as you will, just my experience with him.

It's a shame that he operates like that and tbh he's only hurting his future sales with all this fishy business.

No doubt he has nice accounts but they aren't worth it in the end.

(Jul 7, 2019 10:57 PM)Sixen+ Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) There are a ton of factors that play into this. For starters, I'd go about cleaning your computer. If someone is able to repeatedly have access to your account, they can just keep clearing your account. As for recoveries go, Runescape is extremely IP sensitive especially if the recovery is coming from an original IP address. True Life claims these are original accounts so I would definitely think his password appeals get accepted over yours, regardless of the time you've put on the account. The only reason I'm suggesting that there is someone else taking these accounts from you is because I've bought a MAXED 60 attack pure with a max house on it. These accounts are extremely valuable and I likely have some money worth taking on there as well. None of which True Life has ever taken from me... and its been about 5-6 months.

I've only ever had good experiences with him, he's a genuine guy, so it's really hard for me to say it would be him. I do not think it is.

To add to this -- I would honestly recommend swapping off GP if you have any on the account because there is no telling when it can/will happen.

Like I said in the post, this was over the course of a little under a year. I also thought he was legit after 4-5 months which is why I felt secure enough to transfer larger quantities of GP onto the account. But hey man just a recommendation. Stay safe!

Yeah I mean I always keep most of my cash on my main which is an original account of mine so no worries. I know it seems like the same time frame, but yeah True Life is a good guy from what I know of him. I'll just have to see for myself with the account I bought from him. So far, no problems at all.

I've been communicating with True Life through PMs. So far it's going good will update as time goes.

Update: True Life says he submitted another appeal and this time used my email for the password reset. So far it's been 24 hours and not an email in sight... not even a denied email.

Hmm..?

Like I asked in PMs..

How is that you're 100% original owner with recovery information to ALL accounts you sale, but people have issues with their accounts being recovered?

I doubt everyone you sell accounts to gets "hacked/scammed" like you so adamantly claim everyone has lol.

There has been 2 cases you and one other customer. Shit happens. People recover accounts that's not theirs by randomly getting lucky. It happens.

Yes but this doesn't happen to a no namer, targets are often more high profile.

Imo shady situation, OO can recover an account with ease, another user mentioned he had the same experience with you, and now you update that even another one had this happen to him. Doesn't make you look any better

So you're saying someone randomly guessed the login email to the account (it's not mine) AND THEN still randomly guessed all the creation details to the account?

And by some miracle caused by Jagex shit recovery system they were able to recover the account? In the meantime while the bank pin is being deleted you are completely unable to recover the account back. But wait.. not too long after the pin is deleted and the bank is cleared you're now able to recover the account back.

Seems about right.

You're contradicting yourself. First you claim OP wasn't able to recover the account because of 'IP issues' (which is true, having the OG IP will mean your appeal is instantly accepted) and then you proceed to claim that people are randomly recovering accounts getting lucky (which is not true, Jagex' recovery system works quite well these days)

It's also fishy how this only happens once every few months, looks like you're waiting for OP to make money on the account just to clean him.

I don't know you or OP but atm it looks like you scammed him

AeroBlue - July 17, 2019, 4:14 pm

idk what the issue here is? You have no proof it was him, just circumstantial evidence which is practically baseless here. You already resolved the deal, move on.

Yeah I've already started my own account the last time it was recovered 5 months ago.

Haven't played on that one since the last time it was recovered because I knew True Life would recover again.

Sure enough I was right, lol.

He recovered an account with 0 items/GP.
