This contest doesn't seem legit. 3rd August is too far, and you have less than 200 bytes currently.
Also these type of contests are not allowed anymore whether this is legit or not.

I have more bytes than you imagine in crypto game.

Omniscient even granted me an award for them. (business)

As for if it is allowed please let me know if I don't know something.

As for if it is allowed please let me know if I don't know something. A couple of weeks ago many contests were closed by staff due to these type of contests asking for rep and long close date. I am very sure its against rules

Haven't found anything about this. I only know that it is forbidden to ask for rep in a particular section.

As for the ending date it is not too long imo. Other contests require like 2 months to get completed.
