Thread: I took a 25 minutes bath after not showering more than 3 weeks

CHUZI - July 13, 2019, 5:10 pm

My last post: How longest were you not showering / taking bath.

So yesterday, I took a 25 minutes bath (with shampoo) after not showering for more than 3 weeks. I felt kinda same just all wet for while and I hated it.

I might try to do it for a week straight if I notice any difference
Now I noticed that my skin is peeling off little bit at some places, legs, fingers(hands), it's something you can easily take off but it's weird.

Just wanted to quick report you guys with my progress.

Mix - July 13, 2019, 5:20 pm

Thats called old and dead skin (cells) on your skin. it feels off when its in water so a while perfectly normal.

Blogger - July 13, 2019, 5:30 pm

Why did you not shower for so long, out of curiosity?

Ivex - July 13, 2019, 5:31 pm

Please be hygienic for the sake of everybody.

Ravioli - July 13, 2019, 5:40 pm

when I was 12 hibernating in my room playing Minecraft for 16 hours a day I probably had around the same streak for not showering. I would never do that now though lol.

Goku_6695 - July 13, 2019, 5:47 pm

Not shwering for that long is gay. Why?

He might but I am sure he just doesn't go outside.

Just being lazy, I hate it, I have to force myself a lot even though it's like 10 minutes process. I usually also get sleepy in shower because water makes me very calm. I'm extremely procrastinating with everything

If I do I spray myself a lot and I don't really smell too much, nobody ever said nor looked like "what the fuck"

Our country, if someone smells we laugh at him, or ask him or tell him straight. We are open about it. :)

Bob White - July 25, 2019, 10:32 am

Baths are gross, you're literally soaking in your own filth. Shower power!

I was thinking about this.

We are like that, many families bath and I don't see problem in this anyway.

For my own privacy I will just disclose it's in central Europe.

Silent Uprising - July 25, 2019, 10:37 am

I take baths with baking soda it's healthy for you. You should try it out

Oh okay. Well whatever country you're in, you should make yourself shower daily - you will feel much better mentally and physically

Let me guess, it's Albania right? :)

Delusion - July 25, 2019, 1:16 pm

Did you have any contact with other people? That's disgusting my friend.

Damn.. you just dont give a flying fuck . I cannot imagine the look on their faces..

XaeboR - July 25, 2019, 1:36 pm

im kinda high this thread is funny Imaoo nasty dirty butt

Rigel - July 25, 2019, 2:50 pm

Eww ? why would you do that to yourself?!

My thoughts exactly...

OP seriously, you need to have a shower daily. This thread made my stomach churn, quite literally.

I'm not smelly or anything.

Trust me with that even it's hard. I don't sweat much as I don't really do anything that would cause it.

People in our country are doing these things when someone is smelling but no one ever did that to me, nor asked me nor said that, we always do that.

The best would be showering every second day which means Monday shower, Tuesday pause, Wednesday shower and so on.

Whatever, just not three weeks without a damn shower, that's pretty gross dude

Spaark - July 25, 2019, 9:59 pm

This is so fucking disgusting. -3.

Get a grip man. You say you don't smell, but I find that incredibly difficult to believe. You probably just cant smell your own stick. Fucking slob.

I wish the states were like that.

DrDoof - July 28, 2019, 11:23 am

That is absolutely disgusting, I hope you live alone and have no one around to smell your horrid stench

Thrift - July 28, 2019, 11:41 am

You say you didn't smell but I guarantee people walked past you and it smelt like a back alley covered in piss.

Vagues - July 28, 2019, 4:37 pm

Have you ever heard of being nose-deaf? If you stay in a certain smell for too long you won't smell it anymore. You're probably nose-deaf to your body odour and stink.

One - July 28, 2019, 4:46 pm

This is probably a joke, You have time to post this but you cant take a 15 minutes shower
