You are allowed to do so if you wish but keep in mind that I would not provide you any warranty in this case , as long you do it smartly you wont have any problems what so ever,just dont abuse it like a skide and you should be fine.

Getting the host mad over your activities is never good thing to do,and in this case its out of my own control whenever he chooses to ban your service,but as long no abuse is being done you should be fine,as said.

Pme for more info,proofs or just for questions , either post over here and I will contact you.
