Thread: 3 METHODS TO MAKE MONEY \(EARN +2000\$ PER MONTH\)

denisTennis - July 18, 2019, 2:06 am

Method 1

Type: Whitehat

Risk: none

1. You need an eBay and a PayPal account.
2. Then make an account here (Use my ref. link to receive the first 5$ bonus)
3. IMPORTANT The only way it works if you use the free 5$ referral bonus so make sure you use my referral link.
4. Go to settings on givingassistant.org and fill in your PayPal name and email to make sure you receive the payment
5. To be able to send you free 5$ from the website you need to get at least 1 cashback. Just Search eBay on givingassistant and then click on shop now (purchase something on eBay that Costs between 1$ and 1.01$ (for example a pen or a little laser pointer)
6. This, of course, will cost you 1$ but Givingassistant.org will pay you $5.01(5.00 + 0.01(1%ebay) onto your PayPal next payday so profit is $5.01-$1.00=$4.01 on your PayPal account.
Quick tip you can repeat this process as many times as you (if you change your IP address and create new emails and account) want but make sure every time you use a referral link cause otherwise, you won't get the 5$ referral signup bonus. You don't need a new PayPal account you can just add an extra email address to your PayPal. Repeat it 25 times and you got astounding $100. You can freely do it in under 2 hours.

Method 2

Type: Whitehat

Risk: none

Go HERE and sign up, do some free wagers, free spins and earn some quick BTC!

Method 3

Type: Greyhat

Risk: very little to none

Every day millions of Americans are browsing classifieds, Facebook groups, and online message boards in search of ways to make money from home. This method involves you giving them away to do just that, a job offer E-mail submit.

Step 1: You will need Job offer E-mail submits(people sign up on the site you send them to, and you get paid), I prefer to use Adworkmedia as they always have some that pay near 2$ per signup.

Step 2: I prefer to find an offer taking surveys from home, they convert like a charm, and everybody is willing to sign up for these offers for some reason. I usually get between 10 and 20% conversion rate. On Adwork the highest paying offers are usually choice survey group.

Step 3: Now the fun part you need to find a place to post your job offers I know I have my favourite and you should be able to find one fairly easy I like to post under the gigs section because it is completely free. Facebook buy sell groups, and now hiring groups also seem to work fairly well.

Your ad Copy should look something like this:

Survey Takers Needed $10-20 Per Survey!!

I am looking for some people who would be willing to take surveys online. The pay is between 10 and 20 dollars per survey and they take about ten minutes to complete. You must be willing to be honest and have a good understanding of the English language.

Step 4: Prepare to be flooded with E-mails and responses. Reply back to them and let them know there are still some spots available on a first-come first serve basis and go ahead and send them the link to the offer. Once they're done, don't pay and simply ignore them (or block them if you must).

So I was fooling around with method 1 on my own and it looks like they caught on. They changed the minimum payout to $5.99 - effectively ruining the hack since you would now need to get 99c in credit (spending $9.99 on Ebay with the 1% cashback).

Sparta Vlogs - July 26, 2019, 11:53 pm

OP please give the link of the site used in method 2. If someone else knows a similar site then plzz be kind enough to share.

hartzlead - July 27, 2019, 9:24 am

Method 1 seems like such a hassle for that amount of work and small payout. Not to mention scaling will be a bitch and that's assuming they have not caught on this loophole already.
