Thread: Crypto Game - Unable To Purchase Certain Coins

Almonds - July 20, 2019, 6:35 pm

Spoiler (Click to View)

Just wondering if this is a temporary, or purposeful?
I see it isn't on the coin list- will it ever be expanded?

Thanks,

Almonds ?

I would assume whatever they use for tracking the coins is down for that coin. It is likely temporary and likely will resolve itself in a few hours or so. It's also possible that the coin went through rapid growth or loss recently. I remember a post a while back they will disable the coins for that.

How do you even get started with this game?

Thanks for that but I meant like how do you buy into a crypto, there's nothing I can find to do that?

If the value of the coin goes up your bytes go up. Pretty sure its that simple.

I'll try to explain it more simply, how do I invest in one of the cryptos there?

https://#/34S as you can see here, I've clicked on BTC and still no ability to invest

https://#/34T as you can see here as well, I've clicked on portfolio and still no ability to invest bytes in any of the cryptos

Yeah mine doesn't have that, it could be that there's a certain threshold of Bytes you need to even start an investment but that wouldn't really make sense, I might open up a thread about it I guess ?

Yes I am not sure because I would think 100+ bytes would cover any fee.

Did some searching and found the thread by Xerotic and down the bottom and states it's for upgraded members only ?

Oh that explains it. Well, It was only $15 dollars to upgrade to l33t.

Prices are different nowadays (source; <https://hackforums.net/upgrade.php>) but the upgrade is totally worth it.

Welp, that explains it. I guess I'll just stick to the sportsbook for now.
