I am looking forward to playing this game and I hope to be good at the GPU

This game is so old now, I loved it and still play it but, why the fuck would anyone pay for this at this point? I am just asking because plenty of people do it for free. On everything, PC and console.

I actually have many sales from this service. Thank you.

I want it for Xbox one because I play zombies once every couple of months but don't want to dedicate my life to getting liquid divinium

Mr. Awesome Guy - July 24, 2019, 10:51 pm

How soon will you be available to do this for consoles?
