If its an IP ban you can use a VPN. If your talking about a single account being banned, that is server sided and you can't do anything about it manually. However you could try to social engineer support into unbanning the account, though I never used CB so I can't say that it'll work.

mostly banning on CB are about IP, even you paid for subscription, but it's still risky. buy RDP with residential IP. so, you can safe use your account for ewhoring.
