Thread: How do you guys convert your amazon gift cards to btc? hanafy08 - July 30, 2019, 2:54 am

I tried a couple of options, reddit and purse io. But I cant find an offer that matches my card value on purse io and my reddit account is not aged enough to post on the exchange subs. Any other ways I can do this?

You get ub3r on here and create an exchange thread.

No you can't, + you're a bit of way to get Ub3r anyway.

What currency is your gift cards in? $?

Look on Reddit, they have dodgy policies, people complaining that while the company is legit, they can be scam artists.

We know the company isn't fully a scam considering they have an Ex-Amazon executive, but most people tend to stay away and use Purse.io

Just use /r/gctrading if you don't have the funds to upgrade and use our much better marketplace here.

No offense but, seems like all answers are messy. So...

Any (almost) risk-free methods to exchange AGC to BTC?

Without having to: upgrade the account in here/have 325531515 karma on Reddit/etc. ?

Go here Currency Exchange

You can't create a thread in there, but i think you can still post in there and pm a trusted exchanger that has a high B-Rating and is also Legit with many prior successful and smooth deals/exchanges in their marketplace contract history.

Or you can even use a middle man if you are worried about getting scammed, which i wouldn't worry about since many people have extremely high rep and trust on this site. Here they are offering their trusted middle man services Service Offerings

There are plenty of buyers in the CE section.

You can contact any of them.
