(Jul 30, 2019 03:29 PM)Delphine Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Nice source of traffic for ewhoring, very nice. The people on there already know for fact that Bells is real so they'll be less cautious when it comes to ewhoring, if they even know about it that niche to begin with.

Price is to cheap in my opinion tho Bella, a new source of traffic basicly means a new source of income and they'll earn a lot more then what your asking, a lot more.

On top of that your also selling to 3 people only, basicly means 3 spots of guaranteed profits.

Anyways price as you please i guess, if you wanna go cheap thats your choice.

Goodluck with your sales tho!

TY Delphine! Just testing out the market on HF but you're right it's probably very under-priced!

Are these saturated subreddits? Been called out many times on reddit and it's not worth the money if that's gonna happen

How easily is it usually to get sales from these traffic source? Can you get banned from these subreddits for being a "seller"?

About as easy as it gets, but you'll have to sift through the adds like any other traffic source.

You can be banned for abuse, but they mostly open to the public so they don't mind as long as you are not spammy. I include some basic info on posting etiquette.

With some time and dedication you can gain lots of money.

Silly question to be asking a -- real -- girl. She's (assuming she's as real as everyone has to confirm she is in every post and thread) going to have a lot easier of a time selling considering there's no boundary to what she can do. You're limited to your 'pack' and SEing capabilities. So take the answer with a grain of salt.

However, traffic is traffic. If the source is usable multiple times (post every day or something) then it becomes relatively invaluable. If you're not bad at eWhoring, it shouldn't take you too many sales to get back any money you spend on her list. You should be able to make $100 in 5 or less sales...

This is correct!

Anyone with a little bit of skill or time can make money off this... traffic is traffic.

Thx!

What types of payment methods do these people mainly pay in? PayPal, amazon, what?

They are usually most comfortable paying with CashApp, Zelle, or Coinbase!

I accept most payments through my website, though.

I am so shocked that guys actually pay using coinbase. Most people find that to be sketchy.

Does this method just consist of spamming on reddit forums none stop until you get a shit ton of traffic or is that not the case.

JohnBarr - August 1, 2019, 6:21 am

Screw it, I'll take the 2nd copy and give you a review. I started the contract, honestly not sure where I'm supposed to get your address to send you the funds.

Just posting in the right forums with the right techniques!

BTC payers are the most scarce, but I try that from people who can't be trusted!

My Official Vouch

I purchased a copy of the list of Subreddits, the transaction was quick and very smooth. Bell is very easy to do business with and cares about her clients.

As for the product purchased, the list is pretty long. There's many Subreddits, won't give up how many -- however, I added the total number of members that have joined all the Subreddits combined, the total is 7,300,000 members (among all groups, not necessarily unique though). That's an insane number (it's probably less due to some accounts being in multiple subreddits) of people you can reach out to, and if you're eWhoring, people = money. As I mentioned in my other post earlier, you can easily make back the money you'll spend for the list -- and ideally more. As advertised, you don't need any verifications to join any of the Subreddits. You may need XXX amount of Karma on the account, each Subreddit has it's own rules. It's going to be hard for me to judge how many adds I get specifically from Reddit considering I use other traffic methods, but all you need to do is appeal to a few people a day and money comes in.

Overall, this is totally worth the money, could probably even charge more. Good luck w/ the rest of your sales!

BellsPlayground - August 2, 2019, 7:52 am

Limited copies available! Send me a PM!

$tew - August 2, 2019, 1:00 pm

How quickly were you able to establish yourself on the subreddits? Is this quick or does it take some dedicated time?

BellsPlayground - August 2, 2019, 6:40 pm

Probably giving out only 1 more copy of my subreddits, PM me to claim!

al5ina5 - August 2, 2019, 10:19 pm

You should tell users (on your thread) how the combined list of subreddits have over 6 million subscribers. That'll surely help you sell. The bigger, the better.

Tor - August 2, 2019, 11:38 pm looks promising might buy the entrance. glws!

Sorry I'm new to this forum...

I'm all for buying new things and doing what I can to make money off them....

However I assume for this purchase, I would want to be selling pictures of myself to other people correct? I understand that this has already sold.

Thanks just curious. :)
