To answer your question, I never saw that so not a fan but it doesn't look bad.

I wonder if anyone mixed with hacking, and seeing shit like this has ever inspired hackers to go after people that have caused someones suicide; And cause complete mayhem.

Really not a fan of the show.

There was some anecdotal evidence that the show coincided with an increase in teen suicide.

I really dont know why this show is funded. I watched the first season and couldnt help but laugh at the terrible child actors.

Sex Education on the other hand, very good teen show. If that doesn't get more seasons I'll be furious.

Season 1 was alright and should be done there but they HAD to fucking stretch it.

Not sure how I feel about the Third Season. Season 1 was really good and binge-worthy, Season 2 was pretty good - gave some backstory but I hope Season 3 doesn't ruin it all.

I really liked the 2 firsts, waiting the third ?
