Thread: do NOT use payoneer

makemoneyx322 - August 2, 2019, 3:30 pm

holy fuck this site is shit. i have been trying for a month to get my own money from their shit site. as soon as i withdraw a payment. canceled. they tell me to submit a bunch of shit. canceled again. withdraw another payment. canceled again. every time you withdraw a payment their shit website asks for more and more information and they cancel your payment every time

NEVER USE THIS SITE. they will get your paypal limited. they are too retarded to know how shitty paypal is and paypal will permanently ban your account over the slightest thing so having 18 payments canceled in a row will definitely fuck your paypal account never use payoneer. never use it. ever. its 10000x better to just go into a random bank and start an account there and deal with all their shit. never use payoneer. now i have to go open a bank account, call their shit website, and have my payment canceled AGAIN so i can actually use a real bank.

FUCK PAYONEER.

LOL..It's your problem not theirs

Payoneer never told that their account works with paypal

It is universal fact that Paypal do not allow prepaid ,virtual accounts to link/verify accounts so much shit omg its pissing me off. first it was just payment canceled out of the blue. submit id and this stupid form asking what website you sell shit on. i called support and they said just put i dont have a website. PAYMENT CANCELED AGAIN. said the picture of my ID wasnt good enough. do it again. payment just sits there not being deposited. look. they have a fucking 5 question thing on there now asking for my website, screen shots of my paypal, screen shots of this, screen shots of that i finally just called them up and told them to fuck off because i have been waiting for 2 weeks for one fucking payment and that their website is shit and i told them im just going to use a real bank.

fuck that site fuck that site fuck that site fuck that site. have been waiting weeks, on the phone with customer support 5 times, logging in and out of the site submitting information, just non stop waiting and its one issue after another. i just told them to fuck off and cancel it all and im done with their shit site.

Too many "bad words" in only 1 simple sentence, this is not good for your mental health, nor for your karma....yes use a real bank, but relax dude, listen music, read a real book (that you can hold in hand, not PDF), do things that you like, go to gym ... relax dude
