You mean counterfit? Because cheap only goes so far when it's brands like these.

scam. - August 3, 2019, 2:38 am

Just don't.

You posted cringe man.

Just don't.

I hate to answer this seriously because I don't want to encourage your horrendously poor taste. But Grailed is your best bet. SSENSE and Farfetch sales but you likely wont want to pay any retail prices.

You won't find any designer clothing super cheap. Super cheap in the designer world is still hundreds(or thousands) of dollars.

you can check reddit for fashionreps etc but why buy gucci ? to show up on your friends ? are you rly influenced and manipulated that easy or you just want to test the qualiry if its the first option, fuck people like you you shouldnt get manipulated that easily.

Check out DrJays. I'm not sure they carry what you're looking for, but they have some designer stuff I think.

StockX is good too. IMO, you can still pull off a decent fit and have taste with designer if you don't overdo it and wear it properly Honestly. Brands aren't worth it. You can look pretty good from some cheap shit if you look around.

Are you looking for reps/counterfeits? Thats the only way you'd be able to get it "cheap"
