I genuinely don't understand how this guy isn't closed. At this point it's obvious that he's the same scammer that keeps coming back here over and over again.

How he's doing this:

- > Register
- > Buy l33t
- > Add a pfp of an "entrepreneur"
- > Post 7 "money making methods" in a day

Look at this shit:

We ALL know he's here to scam, we ALL know it's a matter of time until someone opens a deal dispute on him. Even though I know that anyone that do manage to get scammed by him is a fucking dumbass for doing zero research, I still think it's absurd that he keeps coming back and nobody cares.

I'm almost 100% certain that he made more than $1k+ in here for scamming.

His previous accounts:

EDIT: We did it! The guy is closed, will keep the thread open in case he comes back ?

int - August 5, 2019, 6:44 am

Yep, it was kind of obvious once he started posting 200 threads.

Natas - August 5, 2019, 6:44 am

Contact webdev he will take care of it.
or contact one of the other staff
<https://hackforums.net/showstaff.php>

if hes a multi accounter he will get put out of here

if hes a multi accounter he will get put out of here! know multiple people who contacted him and nothing happened, but whatever, I'll PM him as well.

Fruitcake - August 5, 2019, 7:27 am kids def up to no good, tried baiting me for some Gcs

Honor And Respect - August 5, 2019, 7:30 am

First of all - there is nothing wrong with having a couple of money making methods for sale ( it is not against the rules) and many people are doing it.

Second - Entrepreneur ?? - This is Tonio Fortebracci a member of Cosa Nostra lmao

Webdev my favorite tho he always reply's back and good looking making the thread tho it will warn people before the dude gets banned.

I haven't done BTC giveaway, I just did a small 500 bytes giveaway whose winner was chosen last night and received his Bytes.

I am 100% legit user and all of your fake claims towards me make you all seem so jealous and funny :D

Natas - August 5, 2019, 7:33 am

Also I dont see no bad b contracts with this user so I don't no if hes really scamming or not I will look through his threads and take a second look.

There was a previous community alert opened against me by this user - Delphine

Here is his most recent update for the case

(webdev closed it)

Save yourself the effort and time.

I already tryed to get him banned in the past.

Webdev tould me that no matter how obvious it looks, you need solid proof.

And i can't deliver solid proof and he told me that he couldn't find anything either that indicates that he's realy a multi, so by rules i guess he isn't a multi.

Dotexe - August 5, 2019, 10:10 am

Who cares honestly ? It's members fault for buying his trash methods. If you make him banned he will just come with new account and IP Address. Nothing much to do there. Just stop buying these garbage methods, they will never make you rich.

He's not only selling money making methods, he's also trying to "sell" amazon gift cards, amazon gift cards cashout and more.

When have I tried selling AGC ?

You can't provide any real facts and you start spreading lies now. Seems legit ...

If you made the effort to check my threads you can see I've exposed him multiple times, so what ? he comes with new accounts over and over again, doesn't matter if you close him. Just deal with it don't purchase any garbage BTC oriented methods

SoulZeh - August 5, 2019, 10:38 am

I've said from the beginning just because he knows what he is doing around the forum does not indicate he is a multi, I will not believe it until solid proof is giving just like Delphine said... Even though he tried calling him out..

If he does end up being a multi or anything like that, then awh well, but for now Staff have looked into him and found nothing.

SIM-3467872 - August 5, 2019, 10:45 am

His account look highly suspicious. I'd say only time will tell whatever he is multi or not.

Honor And Respect - August 5, 2019, 11:25 am

All these people saying my methods are trash - why don't you buy them and verify if they are trash or not ?

I have sent solid proofs to all my buyers and they trusted me with the methods. You do nothing but trying to trash without any evidence

StoqnKolev - August 5, 2019, 1:01 pm

Lets hope this scammer gets banned...

Maybe because instead of sending me a PM you created a thread?

Are you fucking stupid or what?

Obviously I closed all his previous accounts. One PM to me and I would have closed this account too.

btw, my admin tools already flagged him this morning and I closed him before seeing this thread. But what a bitch you are to make this thread and not contact me.

It's a total asshole move.

It's a total asshole move.Well, I did contact staff, didn't know that I should contact you. Usually I contact staff for these kind of things.

Anyways, don't want to get closed so I'll stop talking now
