Thread: Your Favorite Type of Entertainment

Dorrance - August 7, 2019, 8:39 pm

I am asking this question to hopefully to get a responsive feedback from the two questions below which will later tie into something else.

What's yours favorite type of entertainment? Ex. Music, Books, & TV/Movies.
If you can't come up with your favorite just list some good stuff that comes to mind.

I would have to choose movies, I am a big movie buff.

Favorite would be a tough choice. Godfather II

CynicalCheshire - August 7, 2019, 8:45 pm

Gaming and Programming.

My favorite game is Bioshock Infinite and Gears of War as they played major points in my life growing up.

Programming:

Its something i'm passionate about and when i get an idea for a script or program its fun to pursue it and learn.

Pronouncer - August 7, 2019, 9:13 pm

Music mainly.

I do like any film with Seth rogen tho

Android 17 - August 7, 2019, 9:17 pm

Id have to say movies/tv. I'm mainly into action and horror movies. And anything sci-fi, mystery, horror for tv shows. I get lost in that kind of thing.

Deany - August 7, 2019, 9:34 pm

I am guilty of being a hentai fanatic.

DrRespect - August 7, 2019, 10:21 pm

Mr. Corleone - August 8, 2019, 4:16 am

Anything that helps me progress or develop in life.
Reading, exercising, creating works of art, etc.

From time-to-time I like to indulge in movies and tv-shows.

Dorrance - August 8, 2019, 8:26 am

I'm waiting for the one person to say they can chill without any source of entertainment.

Lyrlei - August 8, 2019, 8:38 am

Mostly just weeb stuff, Occasionally i get my rationale back and watch Sci-fi stuff or global politics.
I don't game much but when i do its usually simulation games like Rimworld or the like. I remember back then where i'd only play RTS all day though. like CnC.

duplex - August 8, 2019, 9:46 am

TV series/Movies & News articles.

Damn Godfather II is one of my favorite movies of all time.

One of my favorite scenes. There's many reasons on a personal level why I love this.

debian - August 8, 2019, 10:30 am

Smoke a blunt, have sex, game all night and eat awfully unhealthy food

InvictusLatinus - August 8, 2019, 10:58 am

Movies; mainly science fiction.

Books; science fiction and non-fiction.

Music; usually artists that make sense and don't curse a lot.

Games; city-building.

StickTalk - August 8, 2019, 3:23 pm

My main source would have to be gaming. I'm more of a PS4 Online gamer. I don't play story modes much. Only when I am doing something else on the side will I play story modes. But my second choice would be expanding my knowledge. Right now I'm doing all I can to learn ways of marketing and sales. I'm actually considering gaining a degree in this also.

I'd say Series and learning.

I love series they're longer than movies, and I don't have to spend an entire evening to watch a movie.

I like to learn because you never know when you'll need it, and it makes me feel that I have more in control of my life.

Omniscient - August 9, 2019, 1:33 am

For media it has to be books for me. I enjoy music and movies plenty but I really don't think much compares to a solid book which you can spend days upon days reading. A great book can be read over and over again too.

DooOmsDay - August 9, 2019, 6:26 am

I enjoy watching a movie/tv. but I like to hike and camp with my nephew and gf way more.

Deal - August 9, 2019, 11:27 am

I listen to music a lot when working out and walking. But I also like series. There is however no time for that when you're a father.

Bear - August 9, 2019, 11:52 am

I spend hours on youtube and other video streaming sites for entertainment. Books used to be once, but dont have the time to relax and read a book like that anymore.

Some habits you just have to cut out... I would say the expensive ones for example weed, I remember it was a daily routine. Now I am in the best shape of my life.

Imo, it's all about Balance, and there are far more £$ consuming drugs than Weed, it's also cheaper to buy in Bulk, or grow it ;)

Balance in a healthy diet or lifestyle will keep striving.

Think of water, it's one of the healthiest things we can drink, but if we drink too much, our lungs blow out and we die.

TheInferno - August 9, 2019, 3:23 pm

Movies and TV series for sure.

Nop, I do take cannabis oil tho 3x a day but for medicinal uses. I don't get high from that anymore.

A spliff is smoked like when I go to watch a horror movie or travel

Blogger - August 9, 2019, 11:52 pm

I like watching television shows and movies with my girlfriend to pass the time. I only listen to music when I'm in the car. I haven't read a book in a long time. I guess television shows and movies win.
