Thread: Hack Forums News // Weekly Reports

Hydra - August 8, 2019, 10:44 am

Welcome! If this is your first time here, this thread serves as a gateway for members of the community to submit reports that are newsworthy to the HF News Team (HFNT). We appreciate all reports but there are certain reports that we do not acknowledge in the news. We ask you to please read and follow the guidelines below to assist us efficiently:

Awards

Awards that are not viewable are no longer listed in the news, please do not report them;

HackerCraft Blue will not be listed in the news;

Green and Purple Clover are no longer notable, only report Gold Clover recipients;

Master Donator and Cyber Diamond will be the only exceptions to donation awards that we will list;

Please report all other awards except Ub3r.

User Stats

Please report post count achievements at 1,000 , 5,000 , 10,000 , 15,000 , 20,000 , 24,000 , and 30,000. After 30,000, report every 5,000 posts (e.g. 35,000);

Only report reputations at every 1,000 interval: 1,000 , 2,000 , 3,000 , etc.;

Bytes are no longer notable, please do not report them;

Reported posts at every 500 interval: 500 , 1,000 , 1,500 , etc.

Bans and Closures

Please do not report 3-day vacation or marketplace bans;

Please report bans/closures on notable members only (e.g. a troll with 13 posts is not notable).

Groups

Official group related reports only.

Threads

No marketplace threads;

All other threads are acceptable, does not guarantee it will be used though;

Yes, self-promotion is acceptable.

4/5/18 - You may now discuss reports in brief discussions (3 replies of same "nested" discussion). Any additional discussions are at risk of being deleted at Hydra's discretion. Many dislike discussions but others enjoy discussing reports. I also believe that discussions in near realtime is a good positive thing and it also promotes activity in this thread. That should mean more reports. So win-win situation for those who want reports only and for those who want discussions.

With the removal of the Hack Forums wiki.

It seems as though the writers/News is looking at the same demise.

It's sad to see both not being recognized as they once where.

Times change and things gone.

One for weekly news and one for the history of Hack Forums.

If only the secondary leadership of the Writers would step (Hint)

As a previous leader of the Writers, This saddens me.

I only hope the Writers don't fall to the same demise as the Wiki did.

I strongly second this.

I wrote Headlines for years, and it was one of the most enjoyable times spent on HF for me. If the HFNT takes the same route as the HFWT it would truly be sad to see, especially after the absolute insane amount of work that's been put in over the years.

I'm a willing hand in what would be the revival of the HFNT just to officially put it out there. There's been talks of revival among many members however, all it's been so far is just that; talk. I hope to see a turn around for the 2019 state of the HFNT.

Writ3rs will be running a limited-time rewards event for the remainder of 2019. Reporting eligible user news will net you 1 point. Every 15 points (essentially 15 reports) earns you $5 in credit. Once you reach 15 points, contact Hydra to process the payout. We'll be monitoring post edits and any abuse will disqualify you for the entire event.

Yes, the money is coming from me directly. Will consider Bytes as a long term reward program but for the remainder of 2019, I'd like to offer actual money. Those were given a week ago which is the cutoff, they'll count. 7 points it is.

why all of this self reporting going on? You really want to be in the news because you spent like 50 bucks? I'm just confused how this is noteworthy especially when it comes from the actual reporter.

Self-promotion is allowed and is part of the concept of reporting news. Not everyone can watch everyone else's actions on the forum. If it's a valid claim, we will take it. We'll take all the reports we can get. Thank you.

HF News Blogs formatting is weird on mobile.

Do you guys plan on making posts in this section still when blogs come out?

I sure af don't check blogs and I bet other members are the same.

Starting with this coming edition, we'll be posting links to the blogs as threads when published.

Given that Blogs support HTML and 90% of our editions are in HTML currently, we can't post them as threads without doubling the workload. Blogs will be improved on over time and we're working with Omni and Xerotic with issues we run into and suggestions we come across.

Can you send me a screenshot of what it looks like on Mobile?

Yes, this is going to be a thing with the coming edition. Had commented about this earlier, we'll be posting a thread linking to the blogs. Omni also tweets the editions out. We have our own Twitter but haven't used it in a while, not sure if it would even get any traffic to tweet using it - for now at least.

Can agree as well that the easiest way to get to the blogs tab is through award goals. which again is too fucking much. it's similar to the testimonials subsection
