Thread: Accepting payments for YOU. \(Stripe/Ewhore/Etc\)

Parks - August 8, 2019, 10:54 am

Offering this for potential people who may need it due to their placement outside of the US. I will accept your Stripe payments (connect it to your site/shoppy etc, allows card payments) and in return I will charge a negotiable % fee sending BTC back daily. Not sure if I have to explain but this would be valuable to your site/services if your outside of the US and have US/CA customers.

If interested feel free to pm me or add me on discord!

No. No Paypal holding what so ever. That is grounds for a long account suspension. This thread is already borderline between a middleman service and disallowed activity.

I am still offering this to people who are interested! Done this for a few people already mostly shopify/google ads! Perfect if your not in the US.
