So, if i want to order for a total of $300(example), will have to pay $60 for it?
Which GC denominations have?

Thanks

Money Inc - August 9, 2019, 1:24 am

Down to buy, but I need a legit simple way you got these. Rather not get in trouble for carding.

Yes. One Giftcard can have the Value up to $500. Giftcards are Stackable.

These are not Carded. Carding is Illegal and the Orders would get Canceled Instantly.

Thats not how it works IF the person reports it stolen in time they'll cancel the item but most people aren't looking at their bank statements every single day

Not saying you're carding them just clarifying that they would not always get canceled instantly

Money Inc - August 9, 2019, 4:02 am

Id buy a lot if you can give me more information on how you get them.

PM me.

Why would you ever buy $10k worth of 'carded' even 'cracked' worth of stuff. That's just asking to get caught unless you're literally shipping $500 worth of stuff to 20 different addresses on 20 different laptops on 20 different IP's.

jowangy - January 20, 2020, 9:00 pm

Hello would you be willing to give me one as well ;)
