Yes sir its amazing gives me such a adrenaline rush.

Im making more on ebay then I use at a real job making 15 a hr 72 hrs a week.

I beeng getting a lot of threat mail from other ebay sellers the game is real.

The only reason I am doing this is to help some one out as of right now I got a lot of niches and am trying new things every day this is a really good one tho who ever purchases this will get 1 free item to sell and I will support listing design and graphics I will make the listing just like mine

I will give you a HOT item that can sell for Anywhere to - $50 the cheaper you have it the quicker you can sell tho the more transactions the more money in my opinion. I sell mine for 19.99 real quick every time I am on ebay

I see I am sold out.

DEAL WITH CAUTION! He is apparently an 8 year member on Hackforums and doesn't know how middlemen work. He doesn't want to use a middleman because he doesn't want to share the niche to two people :D lol another scam from a mile away. And will not sell it to people who don't trust him (meaning they have to go first). Cut the BS.

I dont see how me saying I am a 8 year old member with no scam reports makes me sketchy at all ? I have done many many deals in my 8 years here before and after the b rating system. NEVER have I had a scam report using a MM to me is insulting. And as I said I do not want to share the niche to any one else thats why I dont wanna use your cheap ass MM just because of you this thread has been changed to upgraded members only.

As I said it will take me 20 mins to get the listing made
I will give you the free item to sell you can see the profit margin.
After you sell your item to reup it will be $10 per item but you can sell it for $10 - $ 50 +
Easy money.

Its a really hot item selling fast and its not no software or program its a item.

Any one intrested if you are a upgraded member I can show proof of earnings viva team viewer or pic from this one item.

I wouldn't say this is sketchy at all.
He knows how MM works, just doesn't want to use it as that's a potential risk of more people knowing his method/item.

@OP so is this a digital item we'll be selling I'm assuming?

Thanks FYeah

Thats exactly it now I look at the gyazo I see where I say no thank you any ways I will sell to another upgraded member. That does sound kinda sketchy but wasn't trying to be lol I was trying to tell him nicely that I will just sell to sell some else and then he offered $100 and I turned it down.

I will just do this with a upgraded member people who know me know I will refund when a service isn't met.

Some one who purchases this will be happy with the results.

And if your cool I can help mentor beyond this.

MMs almost always hold the funds (like escrow) and releases the funds once seller has delivered his product- not the other way around. I offered $100 on the condition that he uses a middleman but doesn't want to . A legit seller should have no reason as to why one doesn't want to use a middleman no matter how much the rep (unless they have to pay for costs). Convenience/getting deals quickly done (which was his reason) is one of the main reasons scammers say they don't want to use middlemen. I'm not saying OP is one, but as stated deal with caution.

I use the contract system I dont need a middle man.

Also paying for costs wasn't my reason at all my reason was being I only want to share the information with one person as the information will be in a ebook I am going to sell in the future its a private niche and its hot. I been here since 2011 never had a scam report never will I would rather deal directly then risk getting scammed getting a middle man involved, also waiting on a middle man is a big disadvantage waiting on funds being held and risking them having my product as well.

MM Accepted? You honestly sound too sketch with the "i don't accept MM lol" kind of thing

Like sure, you've 0 records of scamming or any sus activities, but at the same time most ebook sellers are scammers tryna make a quick buck by sucking every cent out of the poor cents who fall for their schemes

I'd be interested in having this method if you'd let me use MM. And no this isn't a matter of trust

I'll send the money to a very trusted Middle-Man, You send the product, I try it and if I don't make money as you claim in "30 mins" then we'll just move on

I've my verified aged ebay ready and got everything set up, if you decline this offer then you honestly sketch af since only one guy (me) who'll have the method, not the MM

I dont care if it sounds sketchy I all ready did the deal and it went smoothly

I dont use MM because I dont like to waste time it took about 20 mins to set up the niche but I spent a good hour or 2 just explaining things.

A MM just wants his piece of the change I dont wanna mess with you bs time wasting nonsense.
