I tried to sell my PayPal account and being new here I didn't know that it wasn't allowed... And for 3 months plus now my account has still not been opened and all the accounts I keep opening keeps getting closed. My username is Abrahamdgreat

Your account was closed for a reason, and you're not welcome here.

Try another forum.

Wrong forum, shit happens, hindsight is 20/20, it's your responsibility to read the stickied threads and the rules themselves. What you're doing now is ban evading and you're just going to end up getting perpetually banned.

Sorry boss. Better find something better to spend your time on.

Pretty sure that is not allowed here counts as fraud.
