Thread: PayPal Limitless | Every eWhore NEEDS this! eWhoreLeader - August 13, 2019, 3:05 am

EDIT: I've contacted the mods to remove this thread from marketplace and decided to give this out for free.

PM me if you want this free guide.

eWhoreLeader Presents
PayPal Limitless
Never Lose Your Account Again!

This is one of my favorite gems that has become a life saver for me.

The nightmare all of us ewhores have had before...and some repeatedly. The dreadful PayPal email stating "Your account has been limited". I'll never forget the 1st time I received this. I didn't understand the severity until I learned that the $4,800 I had in there was frozen for several months!

Then it happened again. After I thought I was careful. The buyer wrote something very sexual related when he was sending me money via the "friends/family" payment type. This alerted PayPal to red flag my account. Then it was investigated and easily shut down for breaking their terms of service. Account limited.

However, when you open your mind to new ways, you discover your account is LIMITLESS.

No login to PayPal required

You have full control over ALL the fields on the payment page:

- No notes or messages field
- Leave price field open or define with with a set amount
- Title the "item" anything you want
- Return buyer to any URL after purchasing
- You don't need to log into Paypal or app to set this up
- Takes less than 1 minute to set up
- Change and edit as needed, easily and without hassle

PM me if you want this guide.

This was originally for sale with a price when I posted it. As of yesterday I contacted the mods to move the thread, as my intentions to make it free. I'm surprised it's still here in the premium market as of today. They're usually a bit quicker.

Hey. Would love to get this. Thanks!

Thank you! I got the guide sent to me. It is really simple and understandable, Thank you! One question though, is it really as simple as it sounds? Can I open a business paypal and simply start accepting PayPal payments that way without getting limited? Is there someone here that is using this method currently and it works for him? A year ago I used to have a real verified business paypal and it got limited after a month!

Unfortunately, this won't help at all in recovering your funds. This method is a preventative method to safeguard your account.

Good luck getting it back though!

eWhoreLeader Presents
PayPal Limitless
Never Lose Your Account Again!

This is one of my favorite gems that has become a life saver for me.

The nightmare all of us ewhores have had before...and some repeatedly. The dreadful PayPal email stating "Your account has been limited". I'll never forget the 1st time I received this. I didn't understand the severity until I learned that the $4,800 I had in there was frozen for several months!

Then it happened again. After I thought I was careful. The buyer wrote something very sexual related when he was sending me money via the "friends/family" payment type. This alerted PayPal to red flag my account. Then it was investigated and easily shut down for breaking their terms of service. Account limited.

However, when you open your mind to new ways, you discover your account is LIMITLESS.

No login to PayPal required

You have full control over ALL the fields on the payment page:

- No notes or messages field
- Leave price field open or define with a set amount
- Title the "item" anything you want
- Return buyer to any URL after purchasing
- You don't need to log into Paypal or app to set this up
- Takes less than 1 minute to set up
- Change and edit as needed, easily and without hassle

PM me if you want this guide.
