Thread: English Language Section

I would love to see here a English Language Section where it would be all about English, Grammar and so on.

That could bring some nice traffic and people could also educate from this very well.

I'd like to see Education and Careers reworked into something a bit more broad like this.

Maybe include Geography, Literature and History?

I agree with you, that would be really good.

Maybe also math, physics etc.

If someone is good at the subjects we could also learn very interesting things.

Otherwise use Education Nation.

I am a huge fan of History. Reading a 3-volume Joseph Stalin Biography right now.
