Could you show us a spreadsheet of your previous bets along with tickets to those bets?

So you joined, bought L33T and are now trying to sell a service all in the same day? This is fishy as fuck...do you at least have a betting history we can check to verify your ability to win substantially?

The reason I've joined this site is to sell my sports betting service - there is nothing wrong with that. I started betting with BTC yesterday and I will be sharing my tickets here daily :)

Was away for the couple few days. Back in the game :)

Chief Sosa - August 21, 2019, 9:36 am

So you started betting a few days ago and already made a group? Lmao, Just the two bets you have presented as proof won't do the job.

I am betting for a couple of years already. I am running a couple of groups with local customers only but the tickets there are on my language and people here won't be able to understand them so I decided to start betting with BTC for people in the forums, so they can understand my tickets :)

It's been a few days since you started the thread. Post more recent tickets.

Here is my first ticket after the break.

Was shared with a user who took a trial too :)

evelution - August 21, 2019, 7:32 pm

Hey folks, I took the trial and got my first bet today. Now I cannot fully judge someone's tips by one bet. I know that, but I can post facts. His tip came in. It was a multibet and one was for a team to win, I took less odds to make it a draw no bet. Put down $50, came out with $90. Will follow up after tomorrow's wagers.

Thanks,
Ev

Unfortunately lost my first bet, but OP is really friendly and helpful. Let's see what the next few days has in store.

SIM-4086413 - August 23, 2019, 2:32 pm

Here is my review, which is useless since he's closed but this is a warning in case members are still in contact with him on discord and are thinking of buying.

I'm new to sports betting, he guided me through it and i told him that i only wanted to hear the bets if he was very confident in them.

Well i lost all lol, luckily just $60 tho but could have been $600.
