Omniscient - August 18, 2019, 1:08 am

Today is my birthday. Happy bday to me. I was getting a lot of PM's so screw it. Just making a thread to wish myself a good one. I am a bit tipsy. Hanging out with my friends and family now down at Caesars palace here on the strip. Had a couple members donate to my party and I want to thank them and the entire community for being part of my life. Much love to everyone. Thanks again and enjoy your lives.

I just don't have the time to make videos. Plus, I'm not that great at it.

I feel you on the time. You'd be surprised though, the videos were charming and was always nice to see some humanization to a authoritarian figure.

If you ever feeling like recording but don't want the effort of post-processing, hmu. I can do the editing, tagging, uploading for you if you get inspiration for a video.
